

Beautifully Decorated Gym . . Interesting Couples Seen at SMA Junior -Senior Feed

By BARBARA BENNETT

Hi kids! Last Thursday night St. Mary's had its junior-senior banquet. The theme was "Golden Dreams." The gym was beautifully decorated in gold and lavender with yellow daffodils sprinkled about. The Starliters played for the dance and the music was very good. A few of the couples were Mary Lois Kelly and Don Becker, Marde Birmingham and Bernard Troshynski, Nancy Beha and Dick Hynes, Barbara Becker and Don Riley, Katherine Golden and Hank Mangan and Patty White and John Vitt.

The St. Mary's alumni banquet was held Sunday night. Several St. Mary's students modeled old fashioned clothing, showing the fashions of the past years.

Last week the athletic banquet was held. Many towns were represented from all of Holt county. The O'Neill and St. Mary's high schools provided musical entertainment.

The choir of the First Presbyterian church presented a concert of sacred music at the Atkinson Presbyterian church last week. The choir, which is made up of high school age people, has made trips to Verdell and Bethany and Kellar rural Presbyterian churches. The choir director is Mrs. Ralph Gerber and the pianist is Mrs. John Harbotle. They have a very fine choir. Several O'Neill high school juniors and seniors went to the fine arts festival in Lincoln last weekend.

That's it for this week. See you around.
