Daughter of Former Residents in Recital

Miss Marilyn Powell, soprano, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Powell, formerly of Opportunity, recently presented a recital in the Corvallis, Ore., museum auditorium.

Miss Powell, a college sophomore, has distinguished herself as a musician. Last year she won the Alpha Chi Omega award as the music student making the greatest contribution to the campus during the year, and last spring she won 2 solo events in the Oregon Music Teachers association contest in Portland.

She is a member of the Oregon State college capella choir, Madrigal club, and Euterpe, Women's music honorary sponsoring this recital.

Many heard her last fall as soprano soloist with the college chorus during the production of Handel's "Messiah."

Two members of the Metropolitan Opera company have auditioned Miss Powell as have a leading book agent and one of Chicago's leading voice teachers. All agree that she has a most promising future.

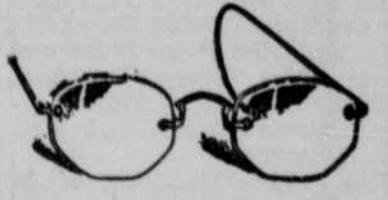

Her parents operated the Opportunity store for several years.
