

Brauer-Johring Nuptials Read

The wedding of Miss Lila Brauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brauer, of Brunswick, and Donald W. Johring, son of Mrs. Martha Johring, of O'Neill, took place at Community church, of Brunswick, at 2:30 p. m. on Sunday, May 7.

Rev. Remi Duhon, of Crowley, La., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, officiated. He was assisted by Rev. Milford Olson, of Brunswick.

Mrs. Howard Manson, of O'Neill, was pianist. Mrs. Erwin Sawyer, of Brunswick, was vocal soloist. She sang, "As the Years Go By" and "Together with Jesus," favorite Hymns of the bride.

Mrs. Dewey Turner, sister of the bride, of Long Beach, Calif., was matron - of - honor, and Miss Shirley White, of Norfolk, was bridesmaid. Melvin Johring, brother of the bridegroom, was bestman and the ushers were Ervin Sawyer and Lester Swan, both of Brunswick.

The bride's gown was white silk marquisette, designed with sweetheart neck and long sleeves which terminated in points over the wrists. Fitted bodice, gathered and fastened in front with pearl ice orange blossoms. It had a wide lace insertion through the dress and a long train. The fingertip veil of bridal illusion, edged in lace, fell in tiers from a pearl clustered crown. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and she carried a white Bible, a gift of her father. It was decorated with a bouquet of pink tea roses and long white streamers. The bride's bouquet and those of her attendants were colonial nosegays of sweet peas and roses.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. About 150 guests attended. The bride's table was decorated with paper streamers and candles.

The bride is a graduate of Brunswick high school and of Wayne State Teachers' college and is principal of the Brunswick high school. The couple will reside on a farm northeast of O'Neill, where the bridegroom now lives. They will go to Louisiana later in the summer for the wedding trip.

Hanson-Stevens Rites at Chambers

CHAMBERS — On Sunday, April 30, at 2:30 p. m. gladioli decorated the altar at St. Paul's Lutheran church in Chambers for the wedding of Elaine Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hanson, and Dean Stevens, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Stevens.

Rev. L. A. Dale officiated at the ceremony. Mrs. Lester Otter, of O'Neill, played the wedding march and Mrs. J. W. Walters accompanied the soloist, Miss Betty Thorin. Candlelighters were Larry Otter and Karlis Hanson, sister of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin with a net yoke and bertha collar and a fitted bodice. The full skirt flowed into an aisle-wide train and fitted sleeves came to points at the wrists. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a chantilly lace bonnet. She carried a white orchid and a white shower arrangement of ivy leaves and white streamers.

The matron-of-honor, Mrs. Roland Mahnke, of Sioux City, wore a lime green gown with white embroidered organza over taffeta and a white lace hat and mitts. She carried a colonial bouquet of sweet peas and snapdragons.

The bridegroom chose a gray suit for his wedding. The best man, Dale Dallegge, of Chambers, a friend of the bridegroom, also wore a grey suit and both wore white carnations in lapels. Darwin Harley, of Chambers, and Roland Mahnke, of Sioux City, served as ushers. The bride's mother chose a dress of navy chiffon and taffeta, wearing a corsage of pink carnations.

The bride is a graduate of a Sioux City high school and attended Wayne Teachers' college for 3½ years, teaching a term near Chambers.

The bridegroom attended Chambers high school and served 3 years in the navy and since his discharge he has been engaged in farming with his father.

After a short wedding trip they will make their home on a farm south of Chambers.

Members of the Sons of the Soil 4-H club met at the home of Roger Babutzka, on Sunday, April 30.

Next regular meeting of Simonson post 93, of the American Legion, will be on Thursday, May 18.
