Scout Mothers Hear Recreational Report

Twenty-seven members of the O'Neill Boy Scout Mothers' club Friday evening, May 13, heard a report on the proposed youth recreational building and a plan for its use.

The report, given by Al Sipes, of O'Neill, was a part of the group's regular monthly meeting held at the O'Neill American Legion club room.

Sipes, a member of the youth recreational building committee, told the Scout mothers the building would be not only for the Scouts but for all O'Neill youth organizations.

Plans were also discussed by the group to hold a food sale and bazaar. A committee was appointed to handle the details for this function.

Each Scout mother is to bring another Scout mother to the June meeting.

To Pose for Camera-

Group pictures of all Holt county eighth grade graduates will be taken at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 23, prior to the promotion exercises, according to Holt county superintendent of public instruction, Elja McCullough.

Promotion exercises will be held at 2 p.m., the same date, at the O'Neill public school auditorium. Miss McCullough said the west entrance to the auditorium should be used by the public attending the ceremonies.

Miss McCullough also urged all pupils who will require high school tuition for the 1950-51 school year to make application for such tuition by July 1. In making application by this date, Miss McCullough said, pupils' tuition fee would be included in a levy made for that purpose.
