Wally Shelhamer Host in Outing; Question: Who Brought Firecrackers?

By BARBARA BENNETT

Well, at long last school is out. We've waited for this all fall, winter, and spring. And now for a whole summer to ourselves. But the way it looks it's going to be a busy summer what with band trips and practices, camps, vacations and work, there is just no rest.

At O'Neill high the final exams were given Monday and Tuesday May 15 and 16. The seniors, of course, didn't have to take them. Then Saturday we went up after the report cards—those little deals that never say what you want them to.

Sunday, May 14, the baccalaureate services were held for the OHS seniors. Rev. V. R. Bell spoke and there were several musical numbers. Then Tuesday evening, May 16, was class night. It was very good with the senior class history, and prophecy, which were all quite amusing. And then the big night for the seniors, commencement. It was Wednesday night, May 17, and that ends their high school days.

Friday, Wally Shelhamer had a weiner roast. There were 8 kids and they had a lot of fun. They went out to a very pretty place, just right for a picnic. There seemed to be some loud bangs, but it certainly couldn't have been Wally and his firecrackers, could it?

The St. Mary's sophomores and juniors went to Long Pine's
