ATKINSON TAKES LEAGUE OPENER

O'Neill - Chambers Fracas Postponed Because Of Rain

In the opening round of the 1950 baseball season of the North-Central day and night league, August Troshynski's Atkinson "9" Sunday afternoon rode to an easy 15-2 verdict over Inman before a "pretty fair" gate.

In other engagements O'Neill at Chambers was postponed because of wet grounds; and Page had an open date.

The initial tilt gave the partisan fans at Atkinson strong indication that Atkinson would be a top-flight contender for the league championship.

The Atkinson tribe demonstrated considerable power in the hitting department.

Leading hitters for victorious Atkinson were Big Bill Miller and Frank Schaff. Miller rapped out 3 hits in 5 trips to the plate. They consisted of a home run, a triple, a single. Schaff clouted 3 for 3 with a homer and a pair of singles.

Playing Manager Milo Gorgen, of Inman, and Fred Appleby took batting honors for the losing club. Gorgen and Appleby knocked out 2 hits in 4 trips to the plate.

Summary: R H E
Inman — 001 000 2 5 3
Atk. — 120 440 040 15 12 3
Batteries: Inman—Elder (5), Sholes (3) and Bright; Atkinson — B. Troshynski (5), J. Troshynski (3) and Schaff and L. Troshynski.

Orchard Juniors Drop Tilt, 2-8

ORCHARD — Clearwater Junior Legion baseball team wrapped up an easy victory on the Clearwater diamond Sunday afternoon by defeating the Orchard Legion, 8-2.

Clearwater took an early lead when Orchard's pitcher issued 4 walks in a row and then 2 Clearwater hits sent 5 runs home.

Batteries: Clearwater — Barrett and Thompson; Orchard — Dempster, Schleusener, Rouse and Hemenway.

South Fork Club in Skating Party

The 212 South Fork 4-club met at the school Friday, afternoon, May 26. The meeting was called to order by the president Joelyn Backhaus. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Donald Strong, and were approved.

Roll call was answered by giving a good health habit. Plans were made for a fishing party soon.

We repeated the 4-H pledge then we sang songs.

A stocker feeder and a sewing class were held after the meeting. We learned the different parts of a calf, judged our hot pot holders and head scarfs, then we played ball and had a wiener roast. Seventeen members and 12 visitors were present.

Next regular meeting will be at the Leonard Peterson home June 30. We had a roller skating party at the Legion hall in Chambers Friday night, May 19. Everyone reported a good time —By Jennie Vee Halsey, news reporter.
