

Make Strides in Building Projects

CHAMBERS — Work is progressing on the new service station which Eric Dankert is having erected on his premises in the east part of town. The new hollow tile building will give him much needed room for his business. Ed Pavel is doing the carpenter work.

Another new building of a quonset type has recently been completed by C. F. Gillette and son, just north of the Golden Gate Theater. It is a store house. Ed Smith is remodeling the interior of the Hubbard building which he has leased and where he will open an appliance store and cafe.

Work is well underway on the basement of the new Memorial Baptist church being built in Chambers. The basement is to be completed this week.

95 Attend Post-Nuptial Shower

CHAMBERS — A post nuptial shower was held Friday, May 26, for Mrs. Gerald McClennahan, formerly Marian Tangeman, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Tangeman. About 95 friends and relatives were present.

A flower garden theme was carried out in the decorations and the program.

Mrs. Ruben Peltzer, was in charge of the program which consisted of a vocal duet, "An Old Fashioned Garden," by Ada DeHart and Kay Eisenhauer accompanied by Carolyn Adams on the saxophone.

Each lady was asked to name a flower beginning with each letter of the alphabet. Next was an instrumental duet, "Whispering Hope," by Lylas Tangeman on the accordion and Carolyn Adams on the saxophone.

Each lady told when a girl where she was married and what she wore and Alice Johnson gave a reading, "How to Bake a Cake," after which a flower quiz was conducted. There was a solo, "Sweethearts," by LuAnne Eisenhauer, accompanied by Carolyn Adams on the saxophone.

The gifts were presented in a flower covered basket carried by LuAnne and Kay Eisenhauer. Members of the Methodist W.S.C.S. and the Baptist Missionary society served refreshments of cup cakes, fruit salad with whipped cream, coffee and iced tea.

Rev. McElheron Memorial Speaker — CHAMBERS — Rev. L. M. McElheron, Baptist church pastor, delivered the Memorial day address here Tuesday afternoon.

Program:
Processional, by Lela Corcoran; invocation, by Reverend McElheron; national anthem, by Mrs. Carl Lambert; saxophone solo, "Anchors Aweigh," by Carolyn Adams; "American Vow," by a group of 6 girls; vocal solo, "America, I Love You," by Angie Spath; address, vocal duet, by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lambert; benediction, by Reverend McElheron; recessional, by Lela Corcoran.

Soil Supervisors To Be Elected

Election of 2 supervisors for the Holt county soil conservation district will be held Thursday, June 8, at the Holt county courthouse annex.

Polls will be open from 8 a. m. until 5 p. m. on the election date.

Elected supervisors are to fill vacancies created by the expiration of terms of 2 supervisors.

Candidates are: Carl Lambert, of Chambers, a candidate for reelection. Lambert at present is a supervisor of the Holt county noxious weed district. He is also a member of the board of the Holt extension service.

Clarence Ernst, of O'Neill, now serving as a member of the Holt county extension service board. In 1948 he made a trip to Europe where he studied agriculture.

R. L. Heiss, of Page, a member of the advisory board to the farm home administration.

A. Max Karo, of Stuart, recent winner of an Omaha World-Herald conservation contest.

Eligible voters are Holt landowners.

Mail ballots may be obtained by writing the election officer at the Holt soil conservation district here or obtained in advance at the following places:

First National bank, O'Neill; Holt extension agent's office, courthouse, O'Neill; and O'Neill Livestock Market, O'Neill. (See legal advertisement, page 2, this issue.)
