Miss Jean Mullen An O'Neill Bride

In an impressive double-ring ceremony Monday morning, June 5, in St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill, Miss Jean Mullen, daughter of Mrs. Michael Mullen, of Emmet, was united in marriage with Romanus Kaup, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kaup, of Stuart.

Rev. A. J. Onak officiated at the nuptial high mass at 9 o'clock.

Gene Batenhorst and George Kohle, friends of the bridegroom, served the Mass. Miss Kathleen Flood, of O'Neill, sang "Ave Marie" and "Just for Today."

The brides gown of white satin was fashioned with a sheer illusion yoke and off the shoulder neckline, fitted bodice and long, pointed sleeves. The skirt ended in a full train and her fingertip veil was held with a flowered tiara. She wore a double strand of pearls and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Tony Kaup, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was maid-of-honor. Her gown was of Nile green marquisette. She wore a matching green head piece and carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Miss Juanita Kaup, cousin of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. She wore a gown of pink marquisette and a matching pink head piece. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations. Both ladies wore rhinestone ear-rings — gift of the bride and bridegroom.

The bridegroom, attired in a haze blue suit, was attended by his brother, Tony Kaup, as best man and Jim Mullen, brother of the bride.

Little Miss Patty Dvorak, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a floor-length dress of imago organdy and carried a basket of mixed flowers. The mothers of the bride and bridegroom wore corsages of pink carnations.

At 11 o'clock, a 3-course breakfast was served the wedding party and immediate relatives at the M & M cafe. The bride's table was centered with a 3-tier wedding cake. Also present at the breakfast were Mr. and Mrs. William Walton, of Crookston, and Mrs. Guy White, of Casper, Wyo.
