Long Pine Drops Rockets, 12-8

A 6-run rally in the first half of the 9th inning Sunday gave the visiting Long Pine baseball club a victory over the O'Neill Rockets, 12-8.

Erratic ball plus the ninth frame rally resulted in the loss for the Rockets in their home debut before a large crowd.

Manager Warren Taylor's Rockets were ahead 8-6 going into the final bracket when numerous errors were committed.

Long Pine's right fielder, Clark, started the ninth inning rally with a single. Then N. Halenbeck struck out; Catcher Johnson rapped out a single; Philben, Long Pine third sacker, clouted a hard ground drive through O'Neill's shortstop; Adbert popped a fly ball up and 2 O'Neill infield men collided in an attempt to catch it and the ball was dropped; D. Halenbeck, L. Fisher and Lyle Fisher got on base with singles before the Rockets could snuff the rally.

The O'Neill club chalked up 4 runs each in the second and seventh frames for their scores.

Junior Adamson, Rocket left fielder, and D. Halenbeck, of Long Pine, were the heavy hitters. Each knocked out 3 bingos.
