

Herrington-Tasler Nuptials Exchanged

ATKINSON—At the altar of the Methodist church, which was banked with seasonal flowers, Miss Donna Herrington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Herrington, of Bassett, became the bride of DeWayne Tasler, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Tasler, of Atkinson, on Thursday afternoon, June 8. Rev. W. C. Birmingham performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride's dress of slipper satin was a princess style, with long pointed sleeves, shirred bodice, caught with white satin in lilies, lace insertions on the front and back of dress continued in the chapel train.

Her lace edged fingertip veil was held with a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bride's bouquet of pink and white carnations and lilies of the valley. Her only jewelry was a heart-shaped matching locket and bracelet, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Darlene Tasler, sister of the bridegroom, was maid-of-honor and wore a gown of blue taffeta, fashioned with a net yoke and puffed sleeves. Mrs. Ray Herrington, sister-in-law of the bride, wore a gown of pink net as matron of honor. Both carried nosegays of pink and white carnations.

Miss Bonnie Humphrey, accompanied by Mrs. Elaine Garwood, sang "Because" and "Always" preceding the ceremony.

Charles Tasler and Ray Herrington, attendants of the bridegroom, were dressed in dark suits. The bridegroom wore a grey pencil-striped suit. All had white carnation boutonnières.

Mrs. Herrington, the bride's mother, wore a light grey flowered crepe. Mrs. W. Tasler was gowned in grey taffeta. Both wore corsages of pink carnations.

A wedding reception was held at the K. C. hall, immediately following the ceremony. Friends of the bride, who helped serve, were: Fay Blake and Mary Jean Fender, of Bassett; Raedean Cearns, Vivian Cearns and Evadean Tasler, of Atkinson.

The bride wore a light blue dress with white accessories for their wedding trip through the Black Hills and to Douglas, Wyo., to visit relatives.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Alphon Haney and son, Lloyd, of Logan, Ia.; Mrs. Chris Petersen and daughter, Ruth, of Pender; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoek, of Tilden; Mrs. Lavern Stout, of Burwell; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nachtmann, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Burgett, Mrs. Isabelle Wolfe, all of Bassett; Mrs. Bud White, of Duff; Mrs. Fred Hoffman, of Douglas, Wyo.; Earl and Dan Reiser and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis, of Butte; Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Herrington and daughter, Shirley, of Burwell; Mrs. Gladys Blake and family, of Bassett; Mr. and Mrs. John Turner and Bonnie Dickau, of Ainsworth.

Miss Edwina Jones Weds at Chambers

Miss Edwina Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Jones, of O'Neill, and Mr. Raymond Walter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Walter, of Chambers, were united in marriage Sunday, June 11, at 2 p.m., at St. Paul's Lutheran church in Chambers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. A. Dale.

The bride wore a light pink sharkskin suit with navy blue accessories. She wore a gardenia corsage.

Miss Jenine Jones, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She was attired in a light green crepe street dress with white accessories. Her corsage was also a gardenia.

The bridegroom and Robert Adams, the bestman, wore light brown business suits, with white carnation boutonnières.

Mrs. Walter graduated from O'Neill high school in 1946 and has taught 4 years in rural schools of the county. Mr. Walter was a graduate from Chambers high school in 1947.

A reception was held in the church basement parlors following the ceremony for 35 relatives and friends.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in Chambers.

Long Pine Leads North-Central Loop

Long Pine jumped into the drivers' seat of the North-Central day-and-night baseball league Sunday by throttling Inman, 15-5, on the Long Pine diamond.

Long Pine, the present pacesetter of the league, has 3 wins against no losses.

Other results of games played Sunday afternoon include: Page 9, O'Neill 5; Atkinson 22, Stuart 6; Chambers had an open date.

In the Long Pine-Inman fracas, the hosts shoved 5 runs across in the first frame, 4 tallies in the second and Inman did not recover.

Winning Long Pine pitcher was Moby while Sholes, the Inman twirler, was charged with the loss.

Leading hitters for the losing club were Milo Gorgen and Cooper Each cracked out 3 hits in 5 trips to the plate.

Philbern, the Long Pine third sacker, rapped out 5 hits in 5 trips to take game hitting laurels. Doyle Hallenbeck, manager, hit 3 times in 4 trips.

Summary: R H E

Long Pine 541 021 20x 15 17 1
Batteries: Long Pine—Moby, Luderman and Moby; Inman—Sholes, Gorgen and D. Bright.

O'Neill held a 2-run advantage at the beginning of the fourth frame but Page rallied to tie the game in the fifth inning. The lead see-sawed and then in the bottom half of the seventh bracket Page, with a 2-run spurt, grabbed the lead and went on to win.

Al Hamik, the Rocket second baseman, and Pitcher Darrel Graham took team batting honors when each clouted 3 binges in 4 times at bat.

Waring, of Page, slugged a pair of hits in his 4 times with the hickory.

Credited with the Page win was Asher. Asher struck out 8 O'Neill swatters while O'Neill's Graham snuffed 10 Page batsmen.

Atkinson Pounds Stuart, 22-6

ATKINSON—The powerful Atkinson baseball team scored an easy victory Sunday by rambling past Stuart, 22-6.

Hitting on Atkinson's part was free and easy. Leading hitters for the winning club were: Jerry Mancuso, who rapped out 2 for 4 times at bat; Tut McKee, who slapped out a pair of triples in as many times at bat, and Schaff, who hit 3 for 5 times.

Gilg swatted 2 of Stuart's 6 hits. He was the visiting team's best hitter.

Atkinson rolled up 13 tallies in the first inning and that sealed the fate for the Stuart club.

Summary: R H E
Stuart 000 110 031 6 6 11
Atkinson 1302 502 000 22 24 2
