

SOCIETY

Altar Society Is Reorganized
 (Since the reorganization of St. Patrick's altar society, a group of 12 women have volunteered to act as chairmen for the next year for the purpose of raising funds for the repair of the church and rectory.

Each chairman will have an equal number of ladies in her group and the members will be contacted by the chairman within the next 2 weeks. The ladies and the names of their guilds are:
 Mrs. H. J. Birmingham, St. Catherine; Mrs. Merie Hickey, St. Elizabeth; Mrs. H. J. Lohuis, St. Bridget; Mrs. C. J. Gatz, St. Cecilia; Mrs. W. J. Froelich, St. Margaret; Mrs. James Gallagher, St. Therese of the Little Flower; Mrs. Leo Gokie, St. Rita; Mrs. Herman Janzing, St. Rose; Mrs. E. M. Gallagher, St. Helen; Mrs. Ed Tharnish, St. Monica; Mrs. Ira Moss, St. Ann; Mrs. Ed Campbell, St. Agnes.

Each of these chairmen will start a traveling basket in her guild. The basket will contain baked goods for which the receiver will pay a fair price. She will then refill the basket, passing it on to another member in her guild.

Since a census of the ladies in St. Patrick's parish was not completed Sunday, June 11, those ladies who have not turned in or filled out their cards are requested to do so next Sunday. There will be ladies at each one of the masses and they will collect the cards.

Helen Moses, Stuart, Becomes June Bride

STUART - Miss Helen Moses, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moses, of Stuart, and Bobby Goodwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Goodwin, of Amarillo, Tex., were united in marriage at the Stuart Federated church on Saturday afternoon, June 10, at 2 o'clock. Rev. Orin Graff officiated.

Miss Faye Moses, of Stuart, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Prayer Perfect," accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Paul, who also played the processional and recessional marches. The altar and kneeling bench were decorated with garden flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white marquisette gown designed with a fitted bodice and long pointed sleeves, the lace ruffled and lace-tied skirt ended in a 3-yard train. Her 3-tier fingertip veil fell from a beaded tiara. She carried a bouquet of red roses with silver streamers. Matron-of-honor was Mrs. Cary Goodwin, sister of the bride, of Amarillo, Tex. Her gown was a soft marine blue fashioned with Irish lace bodice and nylon net over satin. The gown was girdled with a sash of satin. She wore a hat of the same material with muted blue flowers in net and carried a bouquet of pink carnations with pink streamers. The bridegroom was attended by his cousin, Cary Goodwin, of Amarillo. Ushers were Raymond Estes, of Stuart and Laurence Rudolf, of Newport.
