

The Frontier Woman —

Although School Is Out Coming Haying Season Means Packing More Lunches

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE

Hi there, all you busy people!

It is always a pleasure to plan a garden party for friends, or a special luncheon for the family in a favorite spot. Nature supplies the azure cloud-checked sky, velvety grass, and pucish breezes. Guests provide good fellowship and the hostess provides good food to complete the success of the luncheon.

Pretty for any kind are special sandwich breads studded with colorful fruit or nuts. Full of flavor, they need only a simple spread of butter or margarine, jelly or cream cheese or peanut butter. Such sandwiches are delectable and subtle.

Many sandwich breads, like this orange date bread, are made by the quick muffin method. It's a favorite with busy homemakers.

breads for bridge or canasta parties cut them into daisy squares or "fingers." Arrange sandwiches on platters or around fruit salad plates. You'll know how much your guests enjoy them by the way they disappear.

Sandwiches are just about the easiest food to carry on picnic or hike. Have them wrapped well in wax paper so that they will be as fresh when you eat them as the moment you made them. Also, a sweet spread with butter or margarine makes a good sweet sandwich that doesn't "soak."

Many sandwich breads, like this orange date bread, are made by the quick muffin method. It's a favorite with busy homemakers.

ORANGE DATE BREAD
Two cups sifted enriched flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ cup sugar, 1 cup chopped dates, 1 tablespoon grated orange rind, 2 eggs, ½ cup milk, ½ cup orange juice, ¼ cup melted shortening.

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt, and sugar. Add dates and orange rind. Beat eggs and add milk, orange juice, and melted shortening. Add liquid ingredients, stirring until batter is smooth. Bake in greased loaf pan in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 60 minutes, makes 1 loaf.

Apples, cheese and nuts are a wonderful combination of flavor and crunch for a quick bread. This fluffy - textured bread is mixed like a cake. It slices best and is more flavorful the day after it is baked. Though it keeps well, a special luncheon or a midnight raid on the pantry can make a whole loaf vanish and have the family asking for more.

APPLE CHEESE BREAD
Two and one-half cups sifted enriched flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ cup shortening, ¼ cup sugar, 2 eggs, 1¼ cup grated cheese, ¼ cup chopped nuts.

Sift together flour, baking powder, soda and salt. Cream together shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add eggs and mix well. Add flour mixture alternately with chopped apples to cream mixture. Mix well. Add cheese and nuts. Blend well. Bake in greased loaf pan, in moderate oven (350 F.) 1 hour 10 minutes. Makes 1 loaf, 4½ x 8½ inches.

Subscription Winners—
Mrs. J. C. Timmermans, of Stuart, wins a 3-months' subscription to The Frontier today, as does Mrs. Lowell Johnson, of O'Neill.

Dear Mrs. Pease:
Got my strawberry bed reset this year so we're looking forward to lots of berries. I've got 500 chicks and they are 9-weeks-old now, so it won't be long until we have fryers. I had wonderful luck with them.

My housecleaning is done, too, and I've gotten a lot of sewing done, so the spring has not been wasted even though the weather has been rather awful. I'm so glad school is out and I don't have to send lunches any longer, but it won't take long until having time will be here and lunches to send again. Am enclosing a couple of salad recipes.

CHEESE AND PINEAPPLE SALAD

One - half cup grated cheese, 2 cups crushed pineapple, ½ pound marshmallows, ½ cup maraschino cherries, 1 cup whipped cream, ½ cup salad dressing. Mix cheese with salad dressing and add cherries, cut fine, add marshmallows also cut, then add the whipped cream with the pineapple added. Mix well and pour in freezing tray.

CABBAGE AND PINEAPPLE SALAD

Two cups finely chopped cabbage, 1 cup marshmallows, ½ cup boiled salad dressing, 1 cup celery, cut fine, 1 cup crushed pineapple, ½ cup whipped cream. Mix cabbage, celery, and marshmallows and let stand for 30 minutes. Combine pineapple and salad dressing, mix with other ingredients, just before serving, add whipped cream. This serves 8.

Mrs. Johnson's Letter—

Dear Mrs. Pease: I've many times thought of writing you a letter but have never put those thoughts into action. As it is bad weather, it is a good day for letter writing.

I like your department very much and I have gotten lots of good recipes and ideas from it.

Have you ever had company and while ushering them into the living room, singing, "If I'd known you were coming, I'd baked a cake." Here's a recipe I've found that works miracles.

QUICK PIE
Roll 16 graham crackers real fine, 3 tablespoon powdered sugar, 4 to 6 melted tablespoons shortening. Work together and then pat into pie pan. Filling: Use prepared pudding recipe, cook as directed only use 2 egg yolks. Cool slightly, then beat egg whites real stiff, fold egg whites into pudding. Try the vanilla mix with cocoanut banana or what have you. Also the lemon is excellent.

LEMON CHIFFON PIE
One envelope unflavored gelatin, ¼ cup cold water, dissolve the gelatin in the water, 1 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 4 eggs, separated, ½ cup lemon juice, add sugar, lemon juice, and salt to beaten egg yolks.

Cook over boiling water till it begins to thicken. Cool. Add dissolved gelatin to custard and stir. Add lemon rind and beaten egg whites. Here is a cake recipe that is very good and quick, frosting browns in the oven.

LAZY DAISY CAKE
Two eggs beat light, 1 cup sugar, beat into the eggs. 1 cup flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, beat 1 tablespoon butter, and ½ cup milk, bring to boiling point and then cool. Add to mixture above and beat 1 teaspoon vanilla. Bake in loaf. Frosting: ¼ cup cream, ½ cup butter, ¾ cup brown sugar. Bring to a boil, then add 1 cup cocoanut and ½ cup nut meats. Spread on cake and return to oven and brown.

Mildred Derickson, Darold Hesse Wed

STAR — Miss Mildred Derickson, daughter of William Derickson, of Star, and Darold Hesse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hesse, of near Page, were married Saturday, June 10, at 2 p. m. at the Immanuel Lutheran church at Orchard.

The double - ring ceremony was performed by Rev. P. J. Wirth. The church was decorated with yellow roses and bridal wreath. Wm. Zimmerman played Lohengrin's "Bridal March" as the wedding party entered.

The bride wore a turquoise blue suit of wool gabardine with white accessories. Her corsage was made of delicate white iris.

The bestman and matron-of-honor were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hesse, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Mrs. Hesse wore a grey suit of wool crepe with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink shattered carnations. The bridegroom wore a suit of light brown while his attendant wore a dark brown suit.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Lee Brady, of O'Neill, sang "Because." After the ceremony she sang "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mr. Zimmerman, Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was used as the recessional.

Immediately following the ceremony, Robert Miller, of Star, took motion pictures of the wedding as it was reenacted by the wedding party.

A reception for the wedding party, members of the immediate families, and a few close friends was held at the bride's home following the ceremony. The bride's table was decorated with tall lighted tapers with white satin ribbon leading to the place cards which were tied to a yellow rose.

Mrs. William Derickson, jr., decorated the table. The 3-tier wedding cake centered the table and was baked by Mrs. Albert Derickson. Mable Jeanette Derickson was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds left following the reception for a short honeymoon at Lake Andes, S. D., after which they will be at home on a farm near Middlebranch.

5-Passenger Streamliner Six-Cylinder Sedan Coupe

Almost everybody has a good word for the immensely popular Pontiac. The most enthusiastic spokesmen are those who own this great car. The facts behind this admiration of Pontiac are very simple—

Pontiac is America's lowest-priced Straight Eight. Pontiac is the lowest-priced car with GM Hydra-Matic Drive. Pontiac is the most beautiful thing on wheels. And Pontiac is famed everywhere for its dependability and economy.

Those are the facts, and they are impressive. But they are a lot more impressive to the person behind the wheel of a Pontiac. He knows for sure that dollar for dollar, you can't beat a Pontiac!
