

Doug Dale Cops O'Neill Open Golfing Crown

Wins from Don Hill 2-1 In Finals of 26th Annual Meet

Doug Dale, of Ord, Tuesday afternoon, June 20, captured championship honors of the 26th annual O'Neill open golf tournament here when he defeated Don Hill, also of Ord, 2-1.

The young champ dropped Clear Golden, of Cheshire, Conn., in the first round of the championship flight, 1 up; defeated Kermit Mortenson, the defending champion, 8-7 in the second round; then polished off Dean Christoffersen, of Norfolk, 1 up on 20, before tangling with Hill in the finals.

Smashing accurate, long drives of the 2 finalists won praise from many O'Neill golfers, according to Joe McCarville, jr., and H. J. Lohaus, co-managers of the tournament.

Hill in the semi-final round match with M. J. Golden, shot an ace on hole 4.

Equally strong drives by Dale drew praise from many veteran golfers attending the meet.

In the first flight finals, Jute Strasheim, of Norfolk, dropped Howard Dean, O'Neill high school basketball coach, 4-3.

In the second flight finals, Dr. W. Williams, of Decatur, eased out George Talmage, of Norfolk, 1 up.

Sunday's qualifying play drew more than 75 golfers. Joe McCarville and Al Blessing, of Ord, tied for medal honors with 2 over par 72s. Saturday night rain drenched the course. However, Monday the sun shone brightly and dried the course off rapidly.

Then Monday, 47 golfers took part in the opening round of match play. Two rounds were played Monday with the semi-finals and finals being run off Tuesday.

The highlight of the tournament social activity was the annual dance held Monday evening.

The Washington-Merry-Go-Round — Gen. 'Wild Bill' Donovan Talks Like Maine's Sen. Margaret Chase Smith on Amerasia

By DREW PEARSON

General Donovan's Interview—

Senator McCarthy and Roy Howard, of the Scripps-Howard newspapers, didn't know it, but Gen. "Wild Bill" Donovan, famed wartime chief of OSS, let them down on the Amerasia stolen documents case.

General Donovan, a fellow Republican was ballyhooed as backing up the McCarthy-Scripps-Howard charges. When interviewed by a senate committee shortly before leaving for Europe, however, he talked much more like Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, of Maine, who denounces McCarthy extremism.

In fact, General Donovan inferentially criticized his own OSS investigator, Frank Bielski, for illegally raiding the Amerasia office, and the FBI for illegally raiding Emmanuel Larsen's apartment.

As a result of these illegal raids, the justice department could not prosecute.

Here is exactly what the senate investigators reported to the committee after their interview with Donovan at his New York apartment.

"General Donovan asked if we had talked with Archbold Van Buren (his wartime deputy), and when we replied in the affirmative, he indicated that his information was no more than that which Van Buren probably gave us . . .

General Donovan discussed his belief at the time that has been obtained and state 'John Doe' warrants should be issued under oath gotten from the principals," the investigators report continues. "He indicated that he felt that the matter was incorrectly handled, because when any agency conducts an investigation, the matter does not remain confidential and opportunity to cover up arises.

"General Donovan mentioned that in discussing the matter with Fred Lyon (of the state department), he asked if the state department had any idea who might have been responsible for this material (secret documents) emanating from the state department. When he pressed Mr. Lyon for some suggestions or suspicions, Mr. Lyon suggested that it might have been John Carter Vincent. General Donovan then queried us as to whether Vincent did not have a wife who was a Communist."

Throughout the interview, Donovan made it clear he had no new evidence but that his attitude was that of a Margaret Chase Smith republican who didn't relish unfair accusations.

Continuing, the investigators' report declares: "Donovan suggested that we should see Pat Hurley (former ambassador to China). Shortly after the discovery of the Amerasia case, General Donovan went to London and met Pat Hurley at the airport there, Hurley being on his way to Moscow and China. Donovan told Hurley what Fred Lyon had said about Vincent because he knew that Hurley thought Vincent was 'his boy.'"

That was about all Donovan had to say. In fact, he seemed in a hurry to get off to Europe.

Trygve Lie and Truman—

Here is the inside story of what happened when U. N. Secretary General Trygve Lie met with President Truman and Secretary Acheson following Lie's return from Moscow.

Lie first reported on the strong desire for peace which he found everywhere from Moscow to Washington; then asked the President to consider sending Acheson to a special meeting of the United Nations security council in Geneva this summer, a meeting which he said was imperative to keep the United Nations from collapsing.

Mr. Truman's reaction was immediate. He promptly said he could do no such thing; that it would be a cruel hoax to play on the American people when there is absolutely no chance of agreement with Russia.

The only thing Russia understands, the President argued, is force, and the West is going to build up its own force until Russia realizes the democracies mean business. After that, perhaps a meeting with Russia might produce some good.

As it is now, Truman told the U. N. secretary general, Russia is boycotting the United Nations because it won't seat Communist China—just like a little boy who says he won't play in the game unless he can be captain of the team.

Capital News Capsules—

Ambassador Kirk has cabled the state department that the Russian general who was suddenly recalled from Japan with his entire 52-man staff has suffered the same fate as Marshal Zhukov. He's being demoted and disgraced—because he was too chummy with American and British personnel in Tokyo. Kirk says General Kuzma Der-evyanko committed what is the supreme heresy—he actually believed the east and west could get along.
