June 13 Storm Damage Great

Much corn is having to be replanted as a result of the 4-inch rain that accompanied the June 13 wind. Lakes are standing in fields, rye is worthless, trees were uprooted and twisted, small buildings were either damaged or torn apart.

Neighbors worked for several days at the Thiele place to clean up the damage.

Farmers already are behind because of the late spring and are replanting corn, some for the third time.

During a subsequent electrical storm, Leo Funk lost a cow, Earl Rossow's windcharger was burned out, and Stanley Huffman's telephone was burned out for the second time.

Emmet Out of Power
For 30 Minutes

Lightning directly struck the Emmet power substation during the Saturday night electrical storm. Lights to Emmet customers were out about 30 minutes, according to Consumers Public Power district here. However, damage was minor. Lightning also struck and broke a rural electrification line north of O'Neill. A limb on an REA line near Chambers caused minor damage also.

Celia Receives 4 Inches in Week

CELIA—The Celia community has received approximately 4 inches of rainfall during the past week. Rain has fallen on 4 nights.

Wind did considerable damage to trees. Rural electrification power was off for 8 hours following the Tuesday, June 13, storm.

14 Candidates File
In Boyd County

BUTTE—As the closing time draws nearer the activity of candidates has been stepped up during the past week so that now there are 14 persons who have completed their filings for various Boyd county offices.

For supervisor of the First district, comprising only Bush township, there are three filings: Calvin Christensen, Democrat, and William R. Larson and J. W. Rihaneck, Republicans. Mr. Rihaneck is the incumbent.

For supervisor of the Third district, comprising Bristow and Morton townships, two filings have been made, those of Wilmer Landholm and C. L. Haselhorst who are seeking the Democratic nomination. No filing has been made on the Republican ticket nor has W. E. McQuistan, Democrat, incumbent, made his filing.

In the Fifth supervisor district, comprising only Basin township, the incumbent, Herman J. Windmeyer, Democrat, is the only candidate up to this time.

In the Seventh district, Spencer township, three filings have been made: Thomas Broderick, Democrat, incumbent, and Henry F. Classen and W. W. Braithwait, who seek the Republican nomination.

For county treasurer, Owen Johnson, Democrat, incumbent, is the only one who has filed for that office. Mr. Johnson received the appointment as treasurer last November when George D. Sedlacek resigned to accept another position.

For county assessor, Loris H. Anderson, Republican, incumbent, also having been appointed by the county board of supervisors to that office, is the only candidate.

For county clerk the incumbent, C. J. Tomek, Republican, has recently completed his filing as a candidate to succeed himself.
