Bible Pupils Will Receive Certificates

The vacation church school of First Presbyterian church will close Friday, July 21, with a public program at 8 p. m. There will be a display of the work done by the pupils and also a display of old or unusual Bibles. These may be seen immediately after the program.

The school, which has been conducted the last 2 weeks, had an enrollment of 55. The theme has been "The Bible" with each class emphasizing a certain phase. The beginners' class, taught by Mrs. Harry Petersen, used "We Learn About Jesus in Our Bibles" as its theme. Mrs. Warren Taylor taught the primary children. "Discoveries About the Bible." The juniors learned about "The Bible for All the World" from Mrs. J. D. Osenbaugh, and the intermediate group studied "The Christian's Guide Book," under Mrs. Melvin Klingler.

The following persons assisted: Misses Vernice Beckwith, Margaret Redd, Shirley Tietz, Alice Scofield, Elizabeth Schaffer, Carolyn Hiatt, Mrs. L. A. Burgess, Mrs. R. H. Parker and Mrs. Felix Hendrick. Mrs. Ralph Gerber taught the music.

At the program Friday night, the various groups will present work learned in classes, awards and certificates will be given.
