

Victory Club Now Boasts 18 Members

EMMETT — The Victory Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. John Babl Wednesday, July 12, with a covered dish luncheon served at noon. All members were present except one.

Mrs. Clarence Gokie, Mrs. Joe Gokie and Mrs. John Cleary were guests.

Later that day they joined the club bringing the total membership to 18.

A white elephant sale was held that netted almost $9. The guessing prize was won by Mrs. Ray Conway.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. George Pongratz in August. The Victory Homemakers card party will be next Sunday evening, July 23, at the John Babl home.

Corliss-Hansberry Rites at Chambers

CHAMBERS—The Methodist parsonage at Chambers was the scene of a wedding at 2:30 p. m. Sunday, July 16, when Mrs. Eletha Corliss, of Kearney, became the bride of Lyman Hansberry, also of Kearney.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the bridegroom's father, Rev. L. R. Hansberry.

The bride wore a dress of navy blue net over satin and a corsage of rose gardenias. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Raymond Walter, of Gibbon, who wore a navy blue suit and a corsage of white carnations.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Ray Hansberry, of Kearney. Both wore light gray suits and white carnation boutonnières.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for the 20 guests at the parsonage. A 2-tier wedding cake was served with ice cream. Mrs. Charles Grimes and Mrs. Glen Adams assisted with the serving.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hansberry and daughters, Anna Marie and Gwendolyn, and sons, Charles and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Corliss, Doyle Corliss, Miss Carolyn Reiter, Miss Bessie Brooks and Gary Hansberry, all of Kearney; and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walter, of Gibbon.

The bridegroom is the third son of Reverend and Mrs. Hansberry, of Chambers. The bride's parents live at Kearney but were unable to attend the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Nichols and Jill and Ann, of Fremont, were guests Sunday and Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ray.

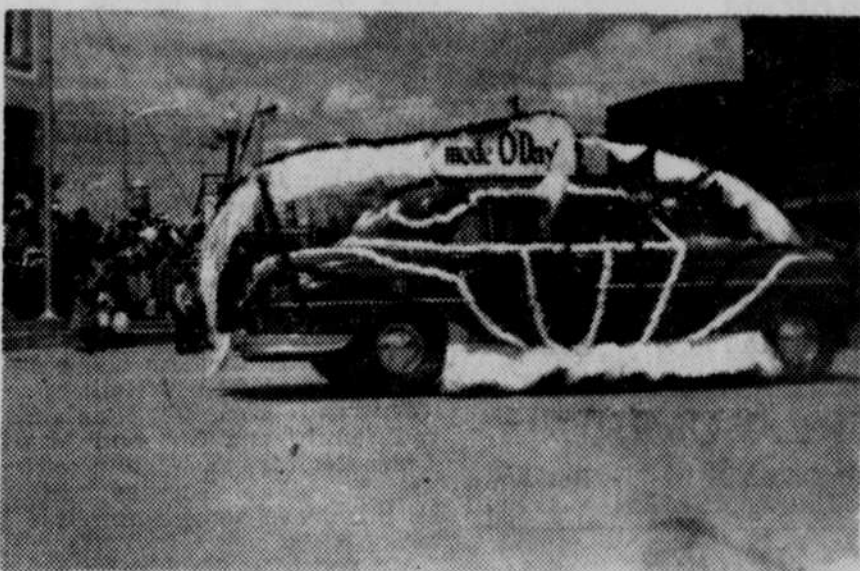

Mrs. L. D. Putnam and Billy and Daniel drove Miss Audrey Nelson to her home in Spencer Friday and visited there for the day.

Ewalt Millers Wed 25 Years

STAR — Mr. and Mrs. Ewalt Miller, who were married July 4, 1925, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on Sunday, July 2, at their home near Star.

One hundred eighty-seven friends and relatives were registered in the guest book of which Mrs. Max LeMasters, a niece was in charge. Dinner was served cafeteria style with a special table for the honored couple, their attendants, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Johnson and Mrs. Hattie Boelter, Mrs. Miller's mother.

A place was also set at the table for Mr. Miller's mother, Mrs. Ernest Miller, but she was unable to be present. The table was centered with a wedding cake—white with pink roses. Huge bouquets of pink and white roses, red phlox and shasta daisies, a gift from Mrs. L. A. Hansen, centered the dining tables.

Mrs. Gerald Waring and Mrs. Delbert Boelter, sister of the couple, were in charge of serving.

Miss Ardis Hansen was in charge of the gift table. Many gifts were received and opened.

Many relatives and friends called in the afternoon and evening and were served refreshments. Beverly Boelter, Charcy Johnson, Eileen and Joyce Miller, Joyce Hansen and Glenda Mott were waitresses.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller resided in the Star community since their marriage. They have 4 children, Verna, Arnold and Barbara at home and Mrs. Vince (Neva) Cunningham, of Lincoln.

Visitors came from the following towns for the occasion: Page, Venus, Manchester, Ia., Laurel, Walnut, O'Neill, Rowley, Ia., Omaha Middlebranch, Verdigr, Lincoln, Winside, Hoskins, Creighton, Star, Decatur, Dorsey, Orchard, Royal, Redbird, Hampton, Ia., and Baker, Ore.

Fractured Arm Doesn't Hurt. Increases Appetite.

ATKINSON — Little Larry Judge, 5, is recuperating from a fractured left arm. He was riding his pony and when the pony stopped suddenly, Larry went on over.

He says the arm doesn't hurt much. His mother, however, says, "It only seems to have increased his appetite!"

Meeting Postponed.

Because of threatening rain, the meeting of the Old Settlers Picnic association, originally scheduled for Friday, July 14, has been postponed until Friday, July 21, according to Secretary Preston Jones.

Rain Interferes Group's Outing

EWING — On Friday evening, July 14, fifteen of the young people of the United Presbyterian church had a picnic supper and a hayride planned. They started out at the time set, and reached Pickerel lake, north of Ewing. The picnic supper was in progress when a sudden rain storm made its appearance and arrived before the supper was finished.

Everything was gathered hastily and the group went back to the church where the picnic was finished and they played games.
