CHAMBERS, PAGE SPANK ROCKETS

O'Neill Club Plagued by Pitching and Error Difficulties

Boss Warren Taylor's O'Neill Rockets suffered a pair of jolts during the past week, losing to Chambers, 8-16, and to Page, 3-7.

Chambers 16; O'Neill 8
Bill Patrick, a hired hand from down Ericson way, read the riot act to the O'Neill Rockets under the Carney park lights here Thursday night, July 27. Patrick was too much for the Rockets, who've experienced anything but a successful campaign thus far.

A bushel of O'Neill errors was mainly responsible for the run-away, but the pitching staff had to share some of the blame. Bob Jonas, Don Godel and Darrel Graham worked 3 innings each. Chambers led most of the way.

Darrel Heiss was the big-gun in the Page attack Sunday night as the Rockets were buried, 7-3. Heiss, who well-scattered 9 O'Neill hits, poked out 2 doubles at the plate. Except for a lack of a fence line, both would have been homers in anybody's ball game.

A good crowd was on hand.
