Like California, Weather 'Unusual'

Mrs. O. A. Hammerberg, The Frontier Celia correspondent, reported Celia received a 2-inch rain Friday night and that excessive rainfall has made haying next to impossible.

At Deloit 3½ inches of rainfall was received Friday morning and late Friday evening. According to The Frontier's correspondent, Mrs. Henry Reimer, "Everyone is trying to get haying done but these nightly rains are slowing up the work."

Most observers say Holt county pasture land has never looked better in mid-August.
