CHURCH BUILDING THEME OF MEET

EWING — Members of the WSCS of the Ewing Methodist church were guests of the WSCS of the Inman Methodist church on Thursday afternoon, August 31. There were 40 members present, 21 from Ewing.

This meeting was a continuation of the chain visitation which the society is stressing this year.

All gathered at the church at 2:30. Miss Elsie Krueger, president of the Inman society, welcomed the visitors and introduced Mrs. Harvey Tompkins, who conducted the devotionals. The theme was "Building Our Church".

Inman is making plans for an addition to their church. The following program was presented for the opening of this part of the meeting.

Piano solo, by Carolyn Watson; vocal duet, "Stars Are the Windows of Heaven," by Linelle and Roger Tompkins; reading, "Service" by Miss Anna Van Zandt, of Ewing; vocal duet, "Take My Hand, Precious Lord," by Mrs. Leon Tompkins and Mrs. Ira Watson; hymn by group, "How Firm a Foundation"; scripture reading, by Mrs. Harvey Tompkins, followed by a brief talk on what Inman is doing in preparation of enlarging their church, closing with a poem, "Where the Church is Really Church"; by Rev. Ray Magnuson; reading, "Our Church, by Mrs. Vaden Kivette"; responsive reading; hymn by group, "The Church"; closing prayer, by Mrs. Harvey Tompkins.

A social hour was enjoyed. Later all were invited to the church parlors for a candle-lighting ceremony in charge of Miss Elsie Krueger. The birthday cake for the 10th anniversary of the society was a gift of the Ewing ladies. Mrs. Earl Billings, president, made the presentation, after which the candles were lighted by the secretary of each office and Miss Krueger lighting "the candle to grow on".

A luncheon was served from tables with a centerpiece of garden flowers.
