METHODIST (O'Neill)
Rev. V. R. Bell, pastor
Church school, 10 a. m., classes for all ages.
Worship, 11 a. m., sermon, special music by the choir.
Senior MYF, 7:30 p. m.

Dr. E. E. Jackman was present Sunday morning and gave the sermon and held quarterly conference afterwards.

The Young Adult Fellowship met Tuesday in the church parlors with Mr. and Mrs. DeWayne Landis and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Lorenz as hosts. There was a fine attendance.

The members of the WSCS were guests at Spencer on Wednesday afternoon of the society there.

Next Sunday is promotion day and rally Sunday for our Sunday-school. Let us have a full attendance. Our attendance has been "very good" all summer.

We invite you to worship with us.

O'NEILL LOCALS

Edward Quinn, jr., has been recalled to active duty in the navy. He has gone on board ship at San Francisco, Calif. His wife and son will make their home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Quinn, in O'Neill.

Norman Gonderinger, O'Neill attorney, was called to Omaha Saturday for a physical examination. He is an army reserve officer.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Panowicz and family spent the Labor day weekend fishing near Valentine.

Mrs. Nellie Case and daughter, Miss Ruth, spent the Labor day weekend in Tripp, S. D., their former home town.

ATKINSON TAKES MIDGET TOURNEY

ATKINSON — The Atkinson Midgets baseball team triumphed 10-5 over the O'Neill Midgets Sunday afternoon at Atkinson to clinch the 4 - team tourney crown. Other teams eliminated earlier were Ainsworth and Stuart.

Slattery whiffed 10 O'Neill batters while Tommy Head, O'Neill hurler, put away 7.

Head relieved Don Kelly, who started on the mound for O'Neill. Kelly pitched to only 3 Atkinsonians, walking all of them, when Master Head was summoned.

Atkinson took a 4-3 lead at the end of the first but O'Neill punched across 2 runs in the second to grab a 5-4 advantage. But that ended O'Neill's scoring, chiefly because Slattery was too good.

Ron Everetts, shortstop, and Judge, catcher, led Atkinson hitting with 2 for 5.

If O'Neill had won a second game to have been played Sunday night for the championship. But Atkinson's Sunday afternoon triumph made a second game unnecessary. O'Neill fans outnumbered Atkinson loyalists in the stands.

Line score: R H E
Atkinson — 401 122 x 10 6 6
O'Neill — 320 000 0 5 3 7

Batteries: O'Neill — Kelly, Head and Dick Graham; Atkinson — Verzal, Slattery and Judge.

Tigers Commence Gridiron Chores

EWING — Coach James Pennington has been putting his Ewing Tigers through stiff work outs in preparation for the 1950 football campaign.

The Tigers will open at Neligh on September 15, a tough starter, then will go against Holy Trinity, of Hartington, on September 22 at Hartington. Trinity is playing football this year for its first time in history.

Calkins, Godel, Seger, Kloppenborg Are Only Vets

Thirty-seven candidates have reported to Coach Marv Miller for O'Neill high school grid chores. But only 4 of these are veterans.

"Prospects are fair," Miller says, "but most of our boys are green—very green."

The 1950 Eagle club will be built around Don Calkins, junior back; Don Godel, junior back; Gene Seger, junior lineman, and Don Kloppenborg, senior lineman.

Kloppenborg will be the only senior on this year's team.

Promising backfield material besides veterans Calkins and Godel, includes Soph Edmie Tomlinson, who'll be a real comer as soon as he matures a little. Tomlinson, son of Dick Tomlinson, one of O'Neill's grid greats, has the makings of a fullback.

Line prospects include Gaylen Hull, sophomore; Russell Miner, freshman, and Dwayne Booth, freshman.

Other contenders are Warren Seger, Ivan McClanahan, Ronnie Bazelman and Jim McKenny.

Miller has dropped 2 Holt county schools from the schedule this year—Ewing and Stuart. He said O'Neill was ready to take these 2 teams on again, as usual, but negotiations bogged down at the other end.

Replacing Ewing is Holy Trinity, of Hartington, which will be playing football for the first time. Trinity's date Burwell to that spot next year.

ONEILL Golfers Win First Matches

O'Neill golfers competing in the Norfolk Labor day golf tournament won their first matches, but Joe McCarville, a southpaw, was the only O'Neillite to go to the finals and win. He defeated Doug Dudley, of Norfolk, 4-3 to capture sixth flight honors.

Gene McKenna, recent University of Nebraska grad from O'Neill, went to the finals of the seventh flight and lost to Pete Berb, of Norfolk, 4-3. Berge was the youngest golfer in the tourney.

J. B. ("Ben") Grady went to the semifinals in the seventh flight, M. J. ("Max") Golden, O'Neill city champ, was defeated by Al Blessing, of Ord, in the second flight, which Blessing won. Other O'Neillites in the meet were H. J. Lohaus, A. P. Jaskowiak and Eddie Campbell.

Tut McKee, of Atkinson, member of the O'Neill Country club, also participated.
