Hannah Stevens Marks Birthday

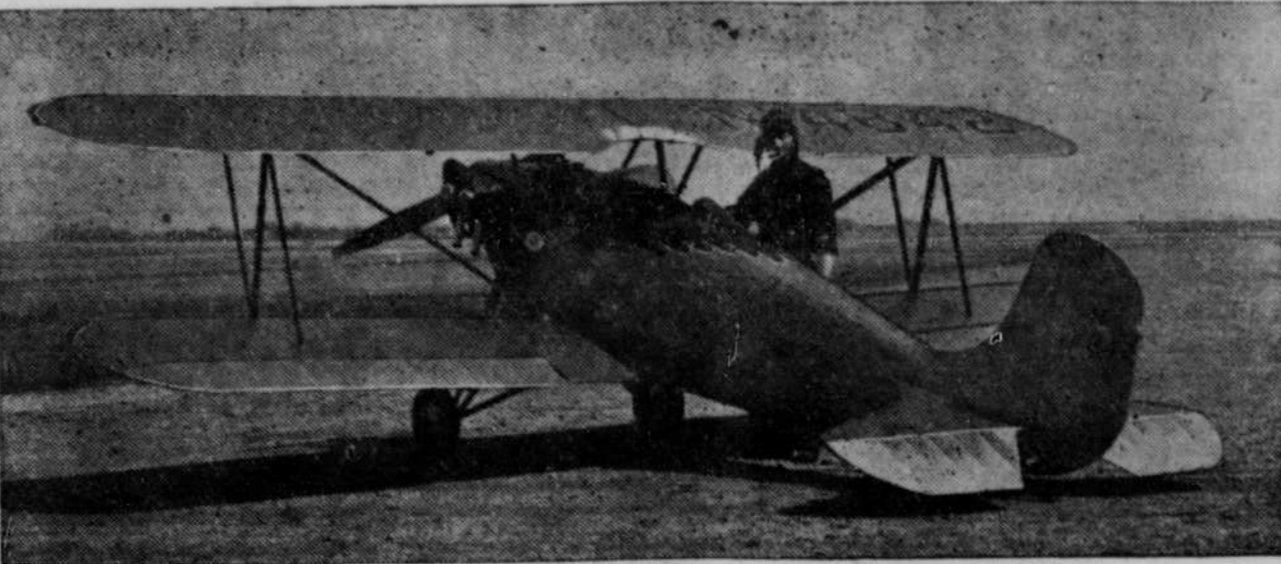

PAGE—Open-house was held at the Mrs. Hannah Stevens home Wednesday, September 20, from 2 to 5 p. m. in honor of her 88th birthday anniversary. Her daughters had planned the day and it was a complete surprise to her. There were 65 who attended during the afternoon and were served refreshments. She received many cards and gifts.
Mrs. Stevens was born at Dubuque, Ia., September 20, 1862. She was married to P. T. Stevens at Walker, Ia., September 2, 1882, where they lived for 4 years. In 1886 the family moved to Holt county and settled on a farm northeast of Page, near Middlebranch. They lived there until 1905 when they moved to Page. Mr. Stevens operated a harness and shoe shop for a number of years.

Since Mr. Stevens' death she has continued to live in her cottage in the west part of town. She is "very active" for her age, relatives say, attends church regularly. Until the last year she had been able to walk several blocks to the postoffice. She is the mother of 9 children: Mrs. Blanche Darr, of California; Mrs. Evelyn Gray, Mrs. Ray (Leila) Snell and Ralph Stevens, all of Page; H. O. Stevens, of Atkinson; Mrs. Lulu Townsend, of Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Florence Neilsen, of Norfolk; Guy Stevens, of Scottsbluff, and Lloyd Stevens, of Lancaster, Calif.
Her daughter and son, Mrs. Blanche Darr and Ralph Stevens, celebrated their birthdays on the same day.

Kimes-Rakow Nuptials Read

PAGE—Miss Barbara Kimes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kimes, of Clearwater, became the bride of Ross Rakow, of White Salmon, Wash., Monday, September 18, at the Methodist church at Neligh. Rev. Lowell Jones officiated with the singler ceremony. The altar was decorated with autumn garden flowers.
The bride wore a deep pink afternoon dress, trimmed with rhinestones, and black accessories. She wore rhinestone earrings and bracelet and a corsage of yellow chrysanthemums.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kimes attended the couple.
A 6 o'clock wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents for the immediate family. Afterward the couple left on a wedding trip to White Salmon, where they will live.
The bride was born and reared in this community and was graduated from Clearwater high school last May.
The bridegroom was born at Page and graduated from the high school here. Following his graduation he attended college a year in California. He moved with his parents to White Salmon early this year.
