

Miss Dona Parks
a Bride at Page

Rev. C. E. Wilcox officiated at the single-ring ceremony.

The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Neven Ickes, jr., of Page, Miss Barbara Trowbridge, sister of the bridegroom, made pictures of the event.

The bride wore the traditional "something new, something blue, something old, and a penny in her shoe". She carried a handkerchief which the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Weber, had carried at her wedding, and wore a blue garter made for her by the Trowbridges. The bride was beautiful in a fall ensemble of beige gray with brown accessories and a shoulder corsage of deep pink roses. Mrs. Ickes, the bride's only attendant, wore a deep green gown trimmed in black velvet and a corsage of white roses.

The bride was born at Page and graduated from the Page high school in May 1950. The bridegroom was also born and reared at Page. After his graduation he attended, junior college at Norfolk. He served 18 months in the army during World War II. Afterward he attended the University of Nebraska. Since then he has been farming. After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Trowbridge will reside on a farm northwest of Page.

Thoroughly Good—and Looks it!

Wherever you drive, you are certain to see a great many new Pontiacs—for two reasons. First, more people are buying new Pontiacs than ever before. Second, Pontiac, with its distinctive Silver Streak styling, just can't help being seen and admired. Pontiac is a stand-out, too, for performance, dependability, and real economy. Come in and see the new Pontiac any time.
