'Work Days' Held At Bible Camp
 The casual passerby would have noticed considerable activity at the Long Pine Bible conference grounds Tuesday, October 10, for at that time members of three Union Sunday schools, namely Paradise Valley of Brown county, Valley Grove of Rock county, and Sunny Slope in Cherry county, met to paint the camp building, install windows, and otherwise get ready for winter.
 The new building at the Bible camp, which is located on Long Pine creek north of highway 20, was erected last spring just prior to the time of the young people's Bible conference which the American Sunday-School union conducts during the last week in June each year. It is used as a kitchen and storage room, although it also doubles as a dining hall when the group is not too large.
 On Wednesday, October 18, another group, mostly from Center Union Sunday school near O'Neill, applied the second coat of paint and did other needed tasks around the camp. Ladies served dinner to "the gang."
 Plans are being made for a Union Thanksgiving dinner and service at the camp November 23. At this and other times the 1,500-watt Kohler light plant that was recently donated to the camp will be appreciated. Lighting has been a problem until now.

 The operation of the Long Pine Bible Conference association is under the jurisdiction of an executive committee composed of A. O. Gurnsey; of Bassett; H. J. Ernst, of O'Neill; Q. E. Smith, of Wood Lake, and Ford Garwood, of Bassett, working in cooperation with the local American Sunday-School Union missionary George E. Hollingstead, of Long Pine.

St. Paul's Aid Marks Birthday

CHAMBERS—Among the outstanding social events of the Lutheran church last week was the celebration of the St. Paul's Lutheran Aid's 20th anniversary.
 In September, 1930, the St. Paul's Lutheran Aid was organized. Rev. R. W. Frickie (now chaplain Frickie) was pastor. The attendance at the first meeting numbered only four, now there are 23 members.
 The charter members were Mrs. J. W. Walter, Mrs. Henry Walter, Mrs. Lew Mielke, and Miss Mae Lierman. Only two remain—Mrs. J. W. Walter and Mrs. Henry Walter.
 On Thursday, October 12, in recognition of the day the Aid members entertained the ladies of the congregation with a program and luncheon. Rev. a n d Mrs. R. W. Olson and son, of O'Neill were guests also.
 The program consisted of several songs by the group; a reading, "An Aid Tribute," by Mrs. Henry Walter; reading of the "St. Paul's Aid History," by Mrs. Eric Dankert, written by Mrs. J. W. Walter, and a quartette, composed of Wanda Lenz, Luetta Dankert, Verda Haake and LaVerne Harley, sang "Sun Down."
 Mrs. Louis Harley read an interesting letter from Mrs. Schabacker (a former Aid member).
 Perhaps the most inspiring part of the program was the message delivered by Reverend Olson and his solo, "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. J. W. Walter was pianist.
 About 40 guests were served a two-course luncheon, consisting of sandwiches, ice cream, cake and coffee. The table was decorated with yellow candles and lavender asters. The anniversary cake, baked by Mr. Willard Thomson, was in the form of a cross. The trimmings were of white and lavender and was topped with a miniature church. Mrs. J. W. Walter, who was first president of the aid, presented a corsage to the president, Mrs. Henry Walter. Several pictures were taken by Mrs. Victor Harley and Mrs. Henry Walter.
 The members of the Aid are proud of their society, which has purchased many of the necessities for the church and parsonage, besides giving a large sum for benevolent purposes.

Birds Discussed by Garden Club

CHAMBERS—The Beautiful Valley Garden club met with Mrs. Esther Atkinson on Tuesday, October 10. Eleven members answered roll call by naming "My Favorite Summer."
 The club voted to give $5 to the Methodist church for the use of their basement for the flower show. They also voted to buy a yellow rose bush for each club member, the yellow rose being the club flower.
 Mrs. Cora Thomson gave a lesson on "Birds" and Bird Banding, and Mrs. Hattie Tibbets on "Winter Protection for Birds."
 Mrs. Mabel Robertson discussed the arrangement of seed pods and grasses for winter bouquets.
 A round-table discussion of dwarf trees was held.
 Mrs. Gertrude Walter received a wall vase as a door prize.
 There will be an election of officers at the Monday meeting.
 A lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Bell on November 7.
