Brainerd - Focken Rites at Valentine

The marriage of Miss Beulah M. Brainerd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd F. Brainerd, of O'Neill, to Donald H. Focken, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Focken, of Atkinson, was solemnized Wednesday, October 25, at 2 p. m. at the Presbyterian manse in Valentine.

Rev. Wm. M. Spence read the lines of the double-ring ceremony. The bride chose a white suit with black accessories and had a corsage of white carnations. Her only jewelry was a matching earring and necklace pink rhinestone set.

The bridegroom wore a navy blue suit with a white carnation boutonniere.

Witnessing the marriage were Mrs. Wm. M. Spence and Mrs. Homer Schultz, of Valentine.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for their wedding trip to Denver, Colo., returning home by the way of Omaha.

The couple will make their home on a farm near Atkinson.

Butchers Hit $18.80; Steer Calves $36.90

The hog sale was relatively small, as expected, but the cattle run was bigger than anticipated at the Thursday, October 26, sale at the O'Neill Livestock Market.

Top butcher hogs hit $18.80 and feeder pigs seemed to be very much in demand.

There were 1,200 head of cattle on Thursday's market. Light steer calves sold at $36.90 with the bulk moving from $32.50 to $34.50.

Light yearling steers were quoted from $28.00 to $29.50; big, weighty steers, weighing a thousand and pounds, moved at $27.50.

The cow market was very good, and, once more, there was a good demand. Bulls sold up to $23.00.

LETTER TO EDITOR

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA
Lincoln 8, Nebraska
Office of the Chancellor
October 24, 1950

Mr. Carroll W. Stewart
O'Neill Frontier
O'Neill, Nebraska
Dear Mr. Stewart:

I want you and the people of O'Neill to know how much we appreciated having your band with us Saturday, October 21. It was a great day all around and your band helped make it so.

You will agree, I'm sure, that the annual University of Nebraska band day has earned a permanent place as a traditional Cornhusker event. More than that, it's a real experience for the young people.

Here at the university, we are aware of the hard work that you townsfolk do to enable your band to take part. We appreciate it. We believe the whole state appreciates it.

Your University of Nebraska would like to thank all of you—the boys and girls in the band, school officials, parents and civic-minded citizens—for your help in making possible a spectacle which thrilled us all. I hope you will convey our sincere thanks to your community.

Sincerely yours,
R. G. GUSTAVSON

Miss Donna Rhodes a Stuart Bride

STUART — The home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rhodes was the scene of a pretty wedding on Sunday afternoon, October 22, when their daughter, Miss Donna, became the bride of Moylan R. Foxworthy, of Lusk, Wyo., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Foxworthy, of Long Pine.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Orin Graff.

Mrs. Perry Everetts, of Bassett, sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Vernon Yarges at the piano.

The bride appeared in a street-length dress of blue satin and wore a shoulder-length veil held in place by a tiara of pink roses. She carried a white Bible with pink carnations and short streamers. Her jewelry was a double strand of pearls with matching ear rings, which were gifts from the bridegroom.

Her only attendant was Mrs. Leonard Foxworthy, who wore a coffee brown dress of roses. She wore a corsage of yellow carnations.

The bridegroom and the best man, Leonard Foxworthy, wore brown sharkskin suits with white carnation boutonnieres.

The bride's mother wore a dress of navy blue with a corsage of red and white carnations and the mother of the bridegroom chose a grey dress with a corsage of white carnations.

After a short honeymoon the couple will make their home on a ranch near Lusk.

Mrs. Foxworthy is a graduate of Stuart high school, class of 1949. The bridegroom graduated from Rock county high school in 1948.
