LETTERS TO EDITOR

Shields Township, November 11, 1950.

Editor, The Frontier:

A large delegation of relatives and oldtime friends from Lincoln and local friends invaded the beautiful home of the William F. Grothes to help celebrate their 50th year of married life. The anniversary fell on Sunday, November 5.

All the participants registered and it was beyond my comprehension to make an estimate of the vast crowd that came fully prepared to have a jolly time.

Everything was nicely arranged so that everyone was served with a bountiful feed with all the trimmings that was all wool and a yard wide. That was appreciated by all the participants.

Mr. Grothe had everything commodious to accommodate the vast crowd with seats and shelter and there was lots of entertainment that kept the ball rolling and many very interesting topics were very well ventilated pro and con from Korea to Russia, not including the domestic affairs. Mr. Grothe takes great pride in showing his improvements, all modernized, and handles a very good strain of stock, which he is very proud of and should be.

Homer Mullen acted as toastmaster and made a very good impression.

All wished Mr. and Mrs. Grothe many happy returns of the day that will be remembered by your numerous friends.
