ST. PETER'S EPISCOPAL (Neligh)

B. H. Cowger, lay assistant to Rev. E. J. Secker, of Norfolk. There will be no morning prayer service at 9 Sunday, November 19. However, Rt. Rev. Howard R. Brinker, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Nebraska, will be present to perform the Apostolic Rite of "Laying on of Hands" at 5 p. m., November 19. There will be a dinner at the Legion club at 7 p. m. Reservations can be made by telephone or card to Mrs. Eddie Hladovcak, phone 152. Reservations must be made by Friday night.

Plan now to be present for both the bishop's visitation and the following Sunday, November 26, at 9 a. m. when C. O. Porter, of Norfolk, will present the program for 1951. Every loyal Episcopalian will want to be present on both November 19 and November 26. Make your plans now!

Prudens Entertain 1950 Tiger Team

EWING—The Tigers of the Ewing high school and their coach, James Pennington, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pruden on Wednesday evening, November 8.

At 6:30, a steak dinner with all the trimmings was served by Mrs. Pruden, assisted by her daughter, Miss Fern Pruden. A miniature football field with the players in position provided novel centerpiece. A small football, which was later autographed by the guests, was also a part of this decoration. Placecards were miniature goals. On the buffet, carrying out the orange and black colors of the Tigers, was a bouquet of golden mums, the center blossom bearing a large "E", all in a crystal bowl flanked by candles of black in crystal holders.

During the evening, movies were shown of the Ewing and Plainview football game of 1949 at Plainview. Other pictures of interest were shown. Later the group went to the recreation room where they played games of their choice.

Those present were: Vernon Rockey, Bob Pruden, Jerry Rothman, Johnnie Binkerd, Warren Klintobe, Lowell Jensen, Dwight Schroder, Jim Good, Jack Charvat, Lyle Tucker, Bob Knapp, Joe Thoedel, Max Angus, Coach Pennington and wife.

Dewaine Hobbs and Tomny Christon were unable to attend. This dinner party has been an annual affair given to the football team of the Ewing high school by the Pruden family for the past four years.

Mrs. Diehlman Heads Christmas Seal Drive

Mrs. L. M. Diehlman has been appointed chairman of the tuberculosis Christmas seal drive in O'Neill. Mrs. Dean Streeter is assistant chairman.

Volunteer workers are preparing mail and working out other details for the sale which begins Monday, November 20.

Two sheets of seal stamps (instead of the usual one) will be mailed this year and recipients will be asked to remit for them. The two sheet policy was adopted several years ago at state and national levels.

Contributions will be accepted, Mrs. Diehlman explained, in addition to the purchase of the stamps.

Plan to Send Old Clothing to Europe

CHAMBERS — The Lutheran aid met Thursday, November 9, at the home of Mrs. Gordon Harley with 14 members and four visitors present.

Plans were made for a bake sale to be held in December. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Henry Walter on December 14.

There will be an exchange of Christmas gifts and election of officers. Each member should bring a small toy to this meeting which will be sent to the orphanage. Anyone wishing to send used clothing to Europe should have it at the church basement next Sunday, November 19.

to South Sioux City, on Wednesday, November 8, to attend the funeral of a relative of Mr. Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Allen are having a two-room addition built onto the north side of their residence. Her father, Wm. Wolfe, of O'Neill, and her brother, Donald Wolfe, of Inman, are doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. James Boies spent Sunday at Inman visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Luben.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Gibson and daughter, Marcia, Mrs. Eula Eppenbach, Mrs. Ralph Eacher and daughter, Joellyn, attended the "Singspiration" held at the Fairview church on Sunday afternoon. Marcia and Joellyn sang a duet. Churches of nearby towns took part in this song festival and attracted the interest of many people.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Gibson, of O'Neill, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Gibson on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Billings were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Kimes, of Clearwater on Sunday.

Mrs. Alvin Gibson entertained the NOT club from Neligh at her home on Thursday afternoon. Nine members were present. Family work and games provided amusement. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Gragert and children spent Sunday at Petersburg, where they were guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gragert.
