sweaters, which will be a part of their uniform this year. They will be worn over white blouses and with black skirts. The student body elected the cheer leaders for the following year: First team — Diana Fussleman, Audrey Brad-dock and Lorne Stevens. Because of the doctor's order Diana was forced to resign and Jane Parks has taken her place. Second team — Norma Cullen, Nancy Heiss and Joyce Clasey. The losing side of the magazine drive planned a party which was to be held Wednesday evening, November 22, in honor of the winning side. Sixty-three high school seventh and eighth grade students are to go to Neligh where they will spend the evening roller skating. Diana Fussleman, general manager of the campaign, reported a total sale of $502.45 of which the school received a com-mission of $182.50. Margie Finch, captain of the winning side sold $104 of magazine subscriptions. For this outstanding achievement she will receive a Shaffer pen and pencil set. The "P" club initiated three new members last Friday night:

William Zemple, Larry Heiss and Virgil Parks. The seniors have received their graduation pictures. The majority of the class were well pleased and every one liked the composite picture.
