WESLEYAN METHODIST (O'Neill)
Rev. Melvin Grosenbach, pastor
The response has been good in our revival services. Attendance is above our average in revival meetings, and many are expressing their appreciation of the ministry of Reverend Cole and Deibert Dick.
Services will continue through Sunday, November 26, at 8 o'clock each evening.
Wednesday evening is the time set for the Union Thanksgiving service which is also to be in our church this year. Methodist, Presbyterian, Center Union and Wesleyan Methodist churches are cooperating in this service. There will be special music from each of the churches and the message will be given by Reverend Bell, pastor of the Methodist church.
You are invited to attend all these services.
Let us all join in the nationwide day of prayer for our beloved America and other nations of the world on November 26.

St. Joseph's P-TA Unit Is Organized

ATKINSON—The recently organized P-TA group of St. Joseph's hall held its first social meeting Sunday afternoon, November 19, at the K. C. hall. This is the first time the school has had an organization of this type and members say it seems to be working out nicely.

At a recent business meeting, the following officers were elected: Mrs. Helen Berigan, president; Mrs. Elizabeth Richeson, vice-president, and Mrs. Winona Pencey, secretary.

Hostesses for the social meeting were mothers of the Senior group and entertainment was furnished by group 1, including grades 1-2 and 3; and group 2, including grades 4-5 and 6. Mrs. B. F. Wilson gave a book review of "Cheaper by the Dozen" and Miss Joan Berigan played a piano solo.

2 Volunteer for Far East Service

Sgt. James Lyons, of the army and air force recruiting station at O'Neill, reports the following enlistments from the O'Neill recruiting station for the past month:

For air force: Roy F. Miller, of Chambers; Emmett M. Cornell, of Springfield; Leo Kotrous, of Verdigris; Duane M. Porter, of Chambers; William L. Grein, of Venus; James V. Leach, of Merriman.

These men went to Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Tex., for further processing, reassignments and training.

For transportation corps: Clyde C. Primus, of Amelia.

For Far East command: John C. Harris, of Crookston; Robert G. Adair, of Amelia.

The last three men went to Ft. Riley, Kans., for further processing and training.

Lyons stated that anyone enlisting can select one of several fields in the army or the air force and that an ex-service man can select any branch or field he wishes.

The sergeant also said that the WAC and WAF quotas had been increased considerably and that there are openings in many fields for women.

Grimes Active in Student Senate—Milton C. Grimes son of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Grimes, of Chambers, is included among the enrollment at Nebraskan Wesleyan university for the fall semester.

His name was inadvertently omitted from a list of students from Holt county released previously.

He is a junior at Wesleyan majoring in business administration. He is a member of the student senate, the student governing body of the campus and of the Independents organization. He has participated in basketball activities while attending.

Awaits Word from Wounded Brother—ATKINSON—In August, Luther Larson, a former resident of Atkinson who now resides in Lucas, Ia., received word from the government that his son, Luther, had been wounded in Korea.

Young Larson, known to people here as Junior, is a brother of the former Doris Larson, now Mrs. Karl Ohde. The Larsons moved to Shenandoah, Ia., a few years ago but since the death of Mrs. Larson, Luther, sr., has resided in Lucas.

Mrs. Ohde says that is the only word they have received except a short note saying he was "all right."

Junior did not say where or how severe his wounds were. The young soldier is a brother also of Bob Larson, of O'Neill.

Entertain Orchard Friends—Mr. and Mrs. William S. Buck were hosts to nine couples from Orchard at a Thanksgiving card party at their home Monday.

Highway 281 Job To Atkinson Firm

Atkinson Sand and Gravel was awarded a contract Friday by the state highway department for gravel surfacing the five miles of U. S. highway 281 just north of O'Neill.

The Atkinson firm is to receive $8,367.28 for surfacing this portion of the highway which is now under construction.

During 1950, the gravel contractor is to surface that part of the project on which the grading and the culvert work are completed. The grading and culvert work were both more than 70 percent complete as of November 11, according to Glen G. Kritner, highway department engineer supervising the construction.

Terms of the contract specify that at least half of the final thickness of gravel is to be placed this season on the portion of the project which has the grading and culvert work completed. The remaining thickness of gravel may be placed next spring.

In all, 4,795 cubic yards of gravel are to be spread on the five miles of highway.
