

Brunckhorst-Mossman Nuptials at Inman

INMAN — Miss Genevieve Brunckhorst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Brunckhorst, of Inman, exchanged vows with Max Mossman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo P. Mossman, also of Inman, in a 2:30 p. m. ceremony Friday, November 17, at the Inman Methodist church.

Rev. C. C. Chappell officiated in the double-ring rites.

Ralph Gray sang "Because" and "My Friend," accompanied by Mrs. Gray, who also played the wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a ballerina dress of white satin made with fitted godies, full skirt, long sleeves and mandarin collar. She wore a half hat of white satin trimmed with a shoulder-length veil. Her only jewelry was pearl earrings and a three-strand pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible topped with a corsage of white chrysanthemums.

The bride also carried out the tradition of something old, something borrowed, something blue and a penny in her shoe.

Miss Barbara Brunckhorst, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor and Miss Deritha Smith was bridesmaid. Their gowns matched the bride's except the necklines were cut lower and they had sap sleeves. Miss Brunckhorst's gown was of green taffeta and Miss Smith's of gold taffeta. They wore winter white hats with short veils, and short white gloves. Their bouquets were white chrysanthemums laced with green and gold ribbons. Their only jewelry was earrings and pearl necklaces.

The gowns were made by the bride and her attendants.

Robert Mossman, of Los Angeles, Calif., was bestman. Thomas Blake of O'Neill was attendant. Ushers were John Brunckhorst, brother of the bride, and Le Roy Moore, friend of the couple.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue figured dress with black accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a teal blue dress with black accessories. Each mother wore corsages of pink carnations.

Mrs. George Coleman, jr., sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the Inman IOOF hall. The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake, decorated in gold and green and flanked by green and gold candles. The cake was baked by the bride's sister, Faye.

The bride and bridegroom are both graduates of the Inman high school with the class of 1948. The bride is also a graduate of the Norfolk beauty school. The bridegroom is employed by the Northwestern Bell Telephone company.

For traveling the bride chose a wine suit with white and black accessories. The couple left on a short trip to the Black Hills. On their return the couple will make their home in Inman. Out-of-town guests at the wedding included: Mrs. Clara Wischding, of Pekin, Ill.; Miss Audrey Brunckhorst, of Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Jessie Bitner, of Fossil, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Fuchelberth, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fuchelberth, Mrs. Kate Fuchelberth and Henry Fuchelberth, all of Osmond; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Dobbin, Pete Nissen, Mrs. Neil Asher and Mrs. Paul Hartigan, all of Page; Mrs. Robert Asher, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Klingler, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Burke, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Kennedy and Mr. Robert Brown, all of O'Neill.
