

Halva-Elam Nuptials Exchanged in Denver

City Park Baptist church in Denver, Colo., was the scene of the wedding of Miss Margaret Anne Halva, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Halva, of O'Neill, to Paul Stanley Elam, son of Mrs. Ola Elam of Joplin, Mo.,

The double-ring ceremony took place at 2 p. m. Saturday, December 2, before an altar banded with double white stock and chrysanthemums accented with green tea leaves and branch candelabra with lighted tapers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a beautifully simple white satin gown fashioned with a full gathered skirt falling into a short train. The fitted bodice, which was buttoned with tiny satin buttons, had a peter pan collar of imported chantilly lace, embroidered in seed pearls.

Complementing it was a two-tier fingertip veil of matching lace gathered on a Juliet cap, edged in seed pearls. She carried a white satin prayer book with white orchids and stephanotis streamers.

Miss Lydia Halva, of Omaha, sister of the bride, served as maid-of-honor. She appeared in emerald green faille, designed with a fitted bodice, buttoned from a deep neck with tiny satin buttons. The very full skirt was banded in emerald satin and fell in folds over a hoop.

Miss Gerry Zabel, of Denver, was her only bridesmaid. She wore an identical gown of coral red. Both attendants carried bouquets of large white chrysanthemums with garlands of small white daisy pompons. In their hair were bands of white pompon chrysanthemums.

Ralph Williams, of Denver, was the bridegroom's best man. Fred Halva, of Omaha, the bride's brother, and Douglas Gold, of Denver, served as ushers.

For the wedding the bride's mother chose a navy crepe with rhinestone buttons and a tiny white veiled hat. Her corsage was white roses.

Miss Eunice Schwisow, of Charlotte, N. C., sang "Because" and during the service, "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Thomas T. Tuttle, of Denver, furnished the bridal music. After the reception, held at the Denver Athletic club, the couple left for a Southern wedding trip.

Mr. Elam and his bride will make their home at 975 Eudora, Denver.
