Elgin Drops 2 by Narrow Margin

CLEARWATER — This week the first standings of the members of the Sandhills Gateway conference are available as a result of the three conference games played last week.
 Elgin was the victim of two narrow squeaks, dropping one contest to Oakdale, 25-23, and another to Orchard, 27-26. In the other league contest, Clearwater routed Brunswick, 54-30.
 In that Elgin-Oakdale game, Wagner led his mates in the scoring column by tallying 13 points, seven of them were made on as many free throws attempts. Heithoff and Keil hit eight points each for Elgin.
 Clearwater trailed the Brunswick Bluejays, 8-7, at the first quarter but rallied in the second period to force a halftime lead, 22-16. The Brunswick boys lost their basket eyes during the third and the Cardinals ran away. Barrett led Clearwater by hitting 26 points.

In the third conference tilt, the game was close most of the way although the Elgin lads led at several stages.
 In non-conference games, Brunswick lost to a strong Inman club, 61-32. Hartigan, of Inman, hit 24 points for Inman Tigers while controlling both backboards. Meanwhile, Chambers took a lacing from Butte, 51-20. The Butte club rolled up an early lead and was never threatened.
 Clearwater Cardinals rolled on their undefeated way by thrashing Center, 75-34.
 This week Oakdale travels to Hoskins, Chambers plays at Osmond in an Elkhorn valley contest, St. Boniface, of Elgin, travels to Brunswick, Clearwater visits a strong Meadow Grove team, Orchard entertains Tilden, and Elgin will play host Ewing.

Sandhill conference standings including Friday, December 8, games.

O'Neill Lions to Tackle All-Stars

The hot O'Neill Lions basketball team, under the tutorage of Arnie Doerning, has bargained for a tough one come Thursday, December 28.
 The O'Neill amateurs will take on the College All-Stars, a crowd of ex-prep greats that will be assembled for the holiday classic. Game will be played at 8 p. m., in the O'Neill public school gym.
 The All Stars will be led by Bob Berigan, former St. Joe (Atkinson) all-stater and now a member of the University of St. Louis basketball team. Other performers will be: Dean Keating (former Atkinson high star), now University of Colorado; Bob Mack (formerly St. Joe), now Wayne State; Bill Miller (formerly St. Joe), now Creighton university; Eddie Campbell (formerly St. Mary's), now Creighton university; Vic Faust (formerly St. Joe), now University of Nebraska; Pat Miller (formerly St. Joe), now Wayne State and playing manager, and Louie Wevel (former St. Joe and former St. Benedict college, Kansas, star).
 The Lions hold easy wins over Orchard and Creighton in the Elkhorn valley amateur loop.

Farmerettes in Christmas Party
 The Vets Farmerettes held their regular December meeting at the home of Mrs. Berl Dammkroger on Monday evening, December 11.
 New lessons and leaders were chosen for the coming year. A Christmas party with ideas, poems, games and gifts was enjoyed by everyone. A lunch was served at a late hour to the members and their husbands.

PAGE—The Page Eagles turned in their second Elkhorn valley conference win of the season by defeating a stubborn Ewing five by a score of 32-27. The victory was not assured until the last 30 seconds when Bob Sorensen, game captain, potted a one-handed field goal from sidcourt. The contest was a see-saw battle throughout with 32 fouls being called.
 Page's offense was led by LeRoy Leist, who acquired 10 points. Good and Knapp paced the way for Ewing by each scoring 10 points.
 In the preliminary, Page edged Ewing 25-23. Game Captain Bill Zempel tallied a fieldgoal with less than 15 seconds playing time remaining. Dick Christon and Virgil Parks paced the way by each scoring 8 points. Klinetobe and Kallhoff led Ewing's offensive by scoring 11 and 10 points, respectively.
 The Page Eagles will meet Inman on Friday, December 15, at home, and Lynch on Tuesday, December 19, at home.

OHS Cops Intracity '50 Basketball Crown

Eagles Win, 39 - 26, in Annual Cage Classic

The 1950-'51 intracity basketball crown goes to Coach Howard Dean's O'Neill high Eagles.
 They lapped St. Mary's academy Cardinals, 39-26, Friday night in the public school auditorium. It was the season's opener for the Eagles and the second setback in that many starts for the Red-and-White.
 Lanky Ted Lindberg, O'Neill center, was bottled up by the Cards but Don Godel, unmoled on the side, peppered the ring for 26 points.
 The Eagles held the upperhand most of the way but couldn't forge ahead until the final period when Godel worked up a full head of steam—hitting six fielders with hardly a miss.
 Dean's kids had trouble getting their offensive going against the underdog Cards.
 Coach Jack Arbutnot has since reshuffled his St. Mary's lineup in an attempt to cover some of the mistakes made against Inman (won by Inman, 54-38) and O'Neill.

Eagles Turn Back Ainsworth, 46-32

In a thriller from start-to-finish but with O'Neill controlling most of the tips and rebounds, the Eagles sped past Ainsworth Tuesday night, 46-32, on the O'Neill court. It was O'Neill high's first triumph over the Bulldogs in the cage arena since 1947.
 Coach Howard Dean started Ted Lindberg at center, Davey Eby and Don Godel at forwards, Don Calkins and Clifford Dick at guards. Strong reserve support was furnished by Gary Buckmaster at forward.
 The defensive work of Lindberg, Calkins and Dick showed well against the potent visitors.
 Godel collected 15 points and Lindberg 14 to pace the Blues' attack. Osborn, of Ainsworth, scored eight.
 O'Neill enjoyed a 26-18 halftime margin.
