Choir Feature of Candlelight Service

The First Presbyterian church, of O'Neill, will present a candlelight service of Christmas music on Christmas eve at 11 o'clock.

The church choir will sing the following anthems: "The Birthday of a King," by Neidlinger; "Carol of the Bells," a Ukrainian carol; "Brightest and Best," by Coombs, and "The Hallelujah Chorus," by Handel. Also included in the service will be the traditional Christmas carols to be sung by the congregation, and portions of Holy Scripture which relate the prophecy and coming of the Christchild.

The climax of the service will be the individual lighting of candles.

This service is open to all who wish to attend, according to Rev. Ralph Gerber, church pastor.

Three Tips From Santa

for a MERRY CHRISTMAS!

TIP ONE

You can solve your problem quickly... and inexpensively... when it comes to choosing the RIGHT gift for relatives or friends who pride themselves on keeping well-informed. A gift subscription for THE FRONTIER is a gift they'll really appreciate... more than anything else you could choose.

TIP TWO

When you give a year—or more—of THE FRONTIER, you know it's a gift that's sure to please the entire family. It's handy, too. Just use the convenient Gift Order Form. Fill in the names of your gift subscribers, tuck your check or money order in an envelope, seal and mail. What's more, a personalized gift card inscribed with your name and the December 21st issue of THE FRONTIER will be sent in time for Christmas. From then on, THE FRONTIER will be a reminder of the giver every week of the year.

TIP THREE

If there is some doubt in your mind what to give brother or sister, son or daughter, grandma or grandpa, or your good friends across the road, you can settle the matter in a hurry. Do it today.

The FRONTIER Leads the Field!

★ In one year alone it has published more news pictures than all other Holt county newspapers combined.

★ What's bigger news in community life than the arrival of a baby? The Frontier in a year has published more birth announcements (we call them "Future Subscribers") than all other Holt newspapers.

★ What's a newspaper without features? The Frontier each week brings you the entertaining paragraphs out of the past and pithy current comment by Romaine Saunders, author of "Prairie Land Talk"; the ladies enjoy Blanche Spann Pease, the homemaking department labeled "The Frontier Woman."

★ The Frontier is FIRST with the MOST news... that's why today The Frontier is North-Nebraska's foremost weekly newspaper.
