Davis Infant Dies After Short Illness

ATKINSON—Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, January 6, at 2 o'clock in the Methodist church at Atkinson for Phyllis Jean Davis, 16-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Davis. She died in the hospital at O'Neill early Thursday morning, January 4, result of a severe case of croup.

The infant had not been ill long. Monday, January 1, she developed a cold and cough and was taken to O'Neill for treatment. Next day she was not better so the parents returned to the hospital and left her for treatment. Early Thursday morning they received word her condition had become worse and before the parents arrived she had died.

Survivors include: Parents; several aunts and uncles. One brother, Donald, preceded her in death in 1947 at the age of 3½ years-old.

Rev. W. C. Birmingham, formerly of Atkinson, but now of Wisner, had charge of the services and was assisted by Rev. E. G. Hughes.

Pallbearers were Roger and Philip Davis and Johnnie and Jimmie Barnes. All four of the boys are cousins of little Phyllis and had served as pallbearers for her little brother.

Spend Weekend Here—Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Moore and two children, of Walthill, spent the weekend at the R. H. Shriner home.

The New Plymouth Cranbrook Four-Door Sedan

Featuring improvements which produce unprecedented roadability and riding qualities, the beautifully redesigned 1951 line of Plymouth cars have numerous mechanical improvements and have retained their traditional roominess. Shown above is Plymouth's Four-door Cranbrook sedan.

isn't it GRAND!

Redesigned front fenders and hood and a wider windshield provide an appearance of massiveness combined with smart streamlining. Among the "high-priced" car features which are retained are six-cylinder, 97-horsepower engine with 7-to-1 compression ratio, the combination ignition and starter switch, automatic electric choke, super-cushion tires, safe-guard hydraulic brakes, safety-rim wheels.
