Sgt. John Watson Going Overseas

INMAN—M/Sgt. John C. Watson, assistant cashier at the First National bank in O'Neill until October when he was called to active duty as a reservist, expects to be shipped overseas "about February 1".

Sergeant Watson is a veteran of several European battles during World War II.

Married, he is the father of a little girl, Ruth Ann.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira L. Watson went to Lincoln Friday where they met John, who was enroute to Wells, Minn., to visit his wife and daughter before going aboard. Sergeant Watson was initially stationed in Washington state and several weeks ago was transferred to Ft. Riley, Kans.
