Council Oak Wins 4-State Award
The Council Oak store at O'Neill this week was declared winner in a four-state Nancy Ann bread sales contest. During four months out of five the O'Neill store set the pace in the group of Council Oak stores in Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota and Minnesota. A. H. ("Arnie") Doering is the store manager.

Highway Maintainers Clear Snow
ROYAL—The three-inch snowfall Sunday brought out the highway maintainers, which worked all day keeping the highway clear. The new building to house equipment, erected here during the fall, greatly facilitates Maintainer Harold Francis and his crew of workmen, who find it much easier to get the equipment to the highway.

CHURCH REDECORATED
ROYAL—Volunteer workmen and women are busy redecorating the Methodist church here. The ceiling has been lowered and the wall papered. The WSCS added $34 to the amount in the treasury when they served lunch at the G. H. Holm farm sale Thursday.

D. C. Schaffer Attends Meeting
D. C. Schaffer went to Alliance Sunday to attend a meeting on Monday of the Nebraska Stock-growers' association.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR
North Bend, Nebr.
January 29, 1951

Dear Mr. Stewart:
I think my time must be about up for The Frontier so I enclose you a check for $2.50 for another year. I keep thinking I won't take the paper any longer, for so many of my old friends have passed on and so many I don't know, but after so many years a resident of Holt county it is like a letter from a friend.

I enjoy the writing from my old friend, Romaine Saunders. He still has the sarcasm of old and tells of early day anecdotes I know about. To me Holt county is still my home.
I congratulate you on the advancement of the paper and also the radio announcer.
Respectfully yours,
G. EZRA MOOR

10 Holt People to 4-H Leaders' Meet

EWING — Mrs. Martin Helmrick, who returned Saturday from a 4-H leaders' training meeting in Lincoln, submitted the following report:

Registration took place Wednesday afternoon, January 24, and general sessions opened at 8:30 a. m. Thursday with sectional meetings following until Saturday afternoon.

The Holt county leaders registered for these classes—Lyle Abney, of Inman, and Mrs. Martin Helmrick, of Ewing, dairy classes; Mrs. E. E. Keyes, of Inman, and Mrs. M. H. Held, of Page, clothing; Mrs. Al Havranek, of Atkinson, and Mrs. Charles Deemer, of Stuart, food; Mrs. Herbert Sweet, of Stuart, homemaking; Al Havranek, of Atkinson, tractor; Ed Boyle, of O'Neill, and Fred Mitchell, of Stuart, soil conservation.

There were 312 leaders registered from all parts of the state. In addition to the instructions, the leaders were feted at the Hotel Cornhusker Friday evening. All women were housed at the Cornhusker and men were at the Lincoln hotel.

Expenses for housing, meals and training were paid by an oil company, Ak-Sar-Ben, Cooper Foundation and the CB&Q railroad.

The aim for the 4-H clubs for 1951 is "Working Together for World Understanding."
