He was born on April 1, 1886. Survivors include: Widow; eight children. One daughter preceded him in death by two months.

News of Mr. Mitchell's death was sent to O'Neill by Mrs. Neva Ross, of Weaverville, Calif.

Altar Society Meets At Cousins Home

LYNCH—Mrs. Ray Counts was hostess to the Catholic Altar society Thursday afternoon, February 1.

Mrs. M. P. Stenger, Margaret and Irene Stenger, Mrs. Clarence Kolund and Mrs. Edward Streit assisted the hostess.

After the business meeting, a social hour was held with Mrs. Raymond Havranek, Raelene Havranek and Sharon Courtney winning the prizes.

In late afternoon sandwiches, pickles and coffee were served.

The next meeting will be held on March 1, with Mesdames Earl Rosicky, Edward Heiser and Frank Cranford as hostesses.

Mary Steinbach Burial at Lynch

LYNCH — Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Steinbach, 82, were held at the Catholic church in Lynch Thursday, February 1, with Rev. John Wiczorek in charge.

Mrs. Steinbach had been in poor health the past several years. She died at the home of her son, Leo, near Verdel.

Survivors include: Son—Leo, of Verdel, and two grandsons.

Return From 4,700 Mile Journey

Mr. and Mrs. William L. McIntosh and son, Billy Dean, returned late Saturday from a 4,700-mile vacation in the Southwest and on the West coast.

They stopped at Phoenix, Ariz., Los Angeles, San Gabriel, Fresno, Sacramento, and San Francisco, Calif., and were gone three weeks.

Mrs. M. L. McIntosh, of Meadow Grove, mother of Mr. McIntosh, made the trip with them and remained in San Gabriel for a visit.

'Voice' Recovers Lost Dog in Hurry

Monday morning's "Voice of the Frontier" program included an appeal for the return to the owner of a three-month-old spaniel pup.

"Within a few minutes after the broadcast Harold Parks, who lives in West O'Neill, got in touch with us and returned the dog," explained Mrs. Jack Everitt, owner of the missing dog.

The spaniel became missing early Sunday.

Expects Overseas Assignment

M/Sgt. Roy Johnson, who has been on a furlough here with his wife and family, will report on February 12, at Ft. Lawton, Wash.

Sergeant Johnson, a reservist called to duty in October, expects an overseas assignment, probably in the Far East command.

Johnson is a veteran of World War II.

Miss Gloria Ott Weds Oklahoman

AMELIA—Miss Gloria Ott, of Denver, Colo., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blake Ott, of Amelia, became the bride of Harold Eugene Landrum, of Denver, in a double-ring ceremony performed at Raton, N. M., Tuesday, January 27. They were attended by Miss Doreen Tangeman, and Gerald Clark, both of Denver, and friends of the couple.

The bride chose for her wedding an afternoon dress of citrus green crepe, fashioned with a close fitted skirt and bouffant side-drape. She wore no jewelry other than the rhinestone half-necklace that trimmed the deep V-neckline. She wore a white winter white hat with a short veil and white gardenia corsage, and carried white gloves.

Miss Tangeman wore a dusty rose crepe frock fashioned with a peplum and dropped skirt, and her dress was trimmed with a pearl half-necklace. She wore a matching corsage and chose black accessories.

Mr. Landrum wore a gray business suit and his attendant, Mr. Clark, wore a brown suit.

Mrs. Landrum received her education in the Amelia and Atkinson schools, graduating with the class of 1945. Following her graduation she taught for four years in rural schools near her home at Amelia. For the past two years she has resided at Denver, where she is at present employed as a secretary for the Chamber Loan Co.

Mr. Landrum is the son of Mrs. Blanche McBride, of Miami, Okla., where he attended school before entering the air force. He spent 3 months in the Philippines, and is at present based at Lowery field.

The couple will be at home at 1333 Pennsylvania St.
