CHARLES GROSCH BURIAL AT PAGE

Came to Holt in 1884;

Last Member of Early Family

PAGE—Funeral services were conducted at 2 p. m. Saturday, February 3, at the Methodist church for Charles M. Groesch, 85, a longtime carpenter and laborer in this community. Mr. Groesch had been the last remaining member of the family of James and Emma Duncan Groesch. He died Thursday following a heart attack.

Rev. C. E. Wilcox, church pastor, officiated and burial was in Page cemetery under direction of Biglin Bros.

The late Mr. Groesch was born at Evansville, Ind., on December 23, 1865. He came to Holt county in 1884 from Indiana. Ten years later he moved to Missouri, residing there several years and returning to Holt in 1901.

He was a member of the Odd Fellows lodge. Survivors include: Half-brothers—Ben and Earl Stevens, both of Page; a number of nieces and nephews.

Members of the IOOF lodge acted as pallbearers.

Misses Martha and Mary Hanley, of Omaha, accompanied their nephew, John Hanley, to O'Neill on Wednesday where they visited with friends and relatives. They will return today (Thursday).
