Fox-Kelly Nuptials in California

Miss Elizabeth Marie Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox, of O'Neill, and William Owen Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kelly, also of O'Neill, were married Saturday, January 27, in Paramount, Calif.

Rev. Henry, of Our Lady of Rosary Catholic church, performed the 10 o'clock double-ring ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, centered with an orchid corsage and a white bible.

Mrs. Leonard Fox, of Norwalk, Calif., sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She was gowned in blue satin and wore a matching sweetheart shaped hat. Her bouquet was pink and white carnations.

Judith Lynn Fox, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a pink formal and a natural straw bonnet. She carried a basket of vari-colored daisies.

Daniel Ferriera, of Norwalk, was bestman and Leonard Fox acted as usher.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Fox.

Mrs. Kelly is a graduate of the O'Neill public school and is employed by the Bank of America in Norwalk.

Mr. Kelly is a graduate of St. Mary's academy. He works for the county park and recreation department.

After a short honeymoon in the San Bernardino mountains, they will live at Norwalk.

Marilyn Funk Becomes Bride

St. John's Catholic church, of Deloit, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Marilyn Funk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Funk, of Ewing, and Kenneth C. Ziska, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ziska, of Atkinson, which was solemnized Monday morning, February 5, at 9 o'clock. Rev. C. J. Kaup, pastor, performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of white slipper satin, fashioned in princess style with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves which tapered to a point at the wrist. The full skirt was accented by a bustle which fell into a long train. A tiara of seed pearl orange blossoms held her veil of chantilly lace trimmed illusion. Her only jewelry was a rhinestone necklace with matching earrings which were a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, centered with an orchid. Also a pearl rosary given her by the bridegroom's mother.

A sister, Miss Vera Dell Funk, was bridesmaid. Her gown was pink taffeta, made with sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice with short puff sleeves and a full gathered skirt. She wore a matching pink head dress and carried a bouquet of pink carnations with blue streamers.

Marvin Zinka, of Atkinson, was his brother's bestman. Ushers were Joe Funk, of Ewing, and Walter Kaup, of Stuart.

Dinner for 35 was served at the home of the bride's parents. A reception was held in the church basement from 2 to 5. A 3-tier wedding cake topped with miniature bride and bridegroom centered the bride's table.

Mrs. Walter Kaup was in charge of the guest book which was signed by 175.

For her going away outfit the bride wore a light green wool dress with black accessories. They left for a 10 day trip to Denver, Colo.

Guests from a distance included: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ziska and Marvin, Mrs. Antonia Ziska and Warren Kelley, all of Atkinson, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kaup, of Stuart.
