Donna Rae Anderson a Lincoln Bride

CHAMBERS—The marriage of Miss Donna Rae Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd D. Anderson, of Lincoln, formerly of Chambers, and Dale G. Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Baker, of Beatrice, was solemnized at Bethany Christian church in Lincoln January 12.

Rev. W. Howard Hoiverson performed the double-ring ceremony at 9 o'clock in the evening in the presence of 100 guests.

During the organ prelude the candles were lighted by Jane Ann Lowe and Carol Cheuervont. Organist was Nina Doboer, who accompanied a vocal trio—James Anderson, Charles Anderson and John Anderson, brothers of the bride—who sang "At Dawning" and "All for You."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a teal blue suit with white accessories. She carried a white Bible with a snowed bouquet of white carnations.

For her attendants the bride chose Miss Marcella Wilson, of Beatrice, as maid-of-honor, and Miss Virginia Sack, of Lincoln, as bridesmaid. Miss Wilson wore a gray suit with a pink rose and gardenia corsage. Miss Sack wore a beige suit with gardenia and talisman corsetage.

The bridegroom was attended by Duane Walker, of Beatrice, and the guests were seated by Homer Hobbs, also of Beatrice.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Baker is employed in Lincoln and Mr. Baker is a former student at the University of Nebraska.

They are residing in Lincoln at 2211 North 65th. The Floyd Anderson family resided in the Chambers vicinity for many years and have numerous relatives here.
