Park Improvement Marked in Decade
PAGE—Several men met at the Page city park Thursday afternoon and worked on tables for the park. They finished one and made plans for a second one.

The park was laid out and trees were planted over 20 years ago. During the dry years many of the trees died and for a while the park was neglected.

During the last 10 years the trees have grown until there is much shade. Tables have been constructed, a fire place built, and a hydrant and park light installed. For several years the Improvement club has sponsored a program and tree-planting ceremony on Arbor day. They have also sponsored a park improvement program during the summer months.

Almost every Sunday during favorable weather picnics and family dinners are enjoyed in the park.
