

Louise Ann Iler a February Bride

Miss Louise Ann Iler, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Downey, was united in marriage to Robert Ross Axtell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Axtell, of Hamburg, Ia., Saturday, February 17, at 4 p.m. at First Presbyterian church. Rev. Ralph Gerber performed the single-ring ceremony.

Mrs. John Harbottle, organist, played several numbers before the ceremony and accompanied Miss Carol Younkin, a sorority sister of the bride, as she sang, "I Love Thee."

The bride appeared in a ballerina gown fashioned with chantilly lace in rose point motif. It had a sheer illusion yolk. A lace petal point design was applied on the full skirt. The same design was applied on her close fitting lace cap, from which her finger tip illusion veil fell. She carried white roses.

Her sister, Miss Dorothy, was maid-of-honor. She appeared in a Nile green lace ballerina gown with shirred strapless bodice and full flared skirt. Her jacket had a pointed collar and three quarter length sleeves. Her bouquet was American beauty roses.

Mr. Axtell chose Irwin Chesen, of Lincoln, for his bestman. The ushers were Richard Day, of Missouri Valley, Ia., Donald Bloom, of Omaha, and William Mueller, of Lincoln, and Russell Laird, of Des Moines, Ia.

Mrs. Downey, the bride's aunt, wore a light blue crepe dress with seed beads embroidered on the top. Her accessories were black and she wore a black Persian lamb cape. Her corsage was of pink camellias.

Mrs. Axtell, the bridegroom's mother, wore a navy blue dress with matching accessories. She also had a corsage of pink camellias.

A reception for 120 guests was held at the Downey home. Miss Phyllis Axtell had charge of the guest book.

For traveling, the bride wore a grey green three piece tweed suit with bitter sweet accessories. After a wedding trip to New Orleans, La., the couple will reside in Hamburg.

Mrs. Axtell is a graduate of St. Mary's academy, class of 1947. She also was graduated from the University of Nebraska with a bachelor of science degree in education. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta.

Mr. Axtell, who graduated from Sidney, Ia., high school, was also graduated from the University of Nebraska. He is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon, the Kosmet Klub, Beta Gamma Sigma and Innocents society.
