Kenneth Goff, who spoke recently to us, is not a communist at this time. When he broke with the communists, he secured a number of documentary evidences about the party and turned these over to the Dies committee and the congress of the United States. (This can be proved by writing your congressman about Mr. Goff.) In his book, Mr. Dies uses 39 pages speaking about Mr. Goff and his testimony. He also states that Mr. Goff's testimony was the most valuable of any one man's testimony that was ever given before his committee.
Mr. Goff's home is in Englewood, Colo.
