

Injures Eye in Slingshot Mishap

CELIA — Klaus Majunke, the youth who came from Germany nearly two years ago when Mr. and Mrs. Lee Terwilliger and son, Perry, returned from their trip abroad, was playing at the Connie Frickel home Friday evening, February 16, with a slingshot loaded with staples.

He hit the target but a staple bounced back and hit him in the eye, rupturing a blood vessel and clouding the pupil.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Terwilliger and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Winnings took him to Omaha that evening to consult a doctor. They wired his mother, Mrs. Sam Eldridge, who lives in an army camp south of St. Louis, Mo., and she met them in Omaha.

Klaus has been a pupil in the Celia school the past six weeks.

His parents recently moved from their home near Colorado Springs, Colo., to St. Louis. Klaus will return to Missouri with his mother and will not lose the sight of his eye.

The Terwilligers and Winnings returned home late Saturday night.
