ST. PETER'S EPISCOPAL

(Neligh)
Rev. Wm. H. Cowger, pastor
Second Sunday after Easter, April 8, 9 a.m. Sermon: "Grace to Receive."

Church school, Sunday, 10 a.m.
Wednesday, May 2, 8:15 p.m., you have the opportunity of hearing one of the world's greatest organists — Richard Elsasser.
If you want to see Neligh get wonderful music, help this venture to the best of your ability.
This is another community project by the churches of Neligh.

Deanery meeting at Trinity Episcopal church, Norfolk, for all Guild and auxiliary members beginning with holy communion at 10 a.m., Thursday, April 13.
Start to make plans now to attend. There will be no Guild on April 11 so you can plan to attend at Norfolk.

Annual council of the diocese of Nebraska at St. James church, Fremont, Wednesday and Thursday, May 9 and 10. Guest speaker will be Very Rev. Paul Roberts, dean of St. John's cathedral, Denver, Colo.

God grant that this confused world may look unto Jesus and by fellowship with Him through His church may find the true brotherhood out of chaos and peace and the power to bring hated, and spiritual strength out of human frailty. The church has not failed; but we have lived feeble lives apart from the wellspring of life, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. He comes to us again this Easter tide in great triumph. Let us, like the disciples of old, be truly glad to see Him. May His words change the weakness of our lives into towers of strength.
Listen. He speaks to you, my friends: "Peace be unto you."

WESLEYAN METHODIST

(O'Neill)
Rev. Melvin Grosenbach, pastor April 5, 8 p.m.: Victory prayer meeting, 8 p.m.: with us for the betterment of our war, crime and political situations.

meeting, 8 p.m.; message by the pastor, 8:30 p.m.

April 13: The sound color film, "God of Creation," 8 p.m.
Marvels of astronomy and natural science made clear through lapse-time camera and microscope. These remarkable scenes: Huge size and vast number of heavenly bodies, buds, blossoming in seconds, leaves manufacturing their food... caterpillar changing into butterfly!

April 17: The sound color film, "Dust or Destiny." Marvelous mechanisms of the human eye, ear and heart! Unerring flight of homing pigeons! Fish laying eggs on dry land! The wonder of growing things! Amazing, thrilling, awe inspiring!

April 19: The sound color film, "God of the Atom." Startlingly different approach to atomic bomb problem. Featured are exclusive photographs of equipment used in atomic research and unusual photography showing tremendous energies packed in a tiny atom.

Freewill offering will be taken for film rental.

Jim Hytrek a
Soloist at Festival

STUART—Jim Hytrek, senior in Stuart high school, sang a solo, "The Long Road," in the evening concert at the north-central conference chorale music festival held in Valentine on Saturday, March 31.

The concert was broadcast by tape recording on Sunday, April 1, from 2 to 3 p.m. over KRNV at Lexington.

About 35 boys and girls from the high school music department and their director, Allen Barnes, represented Stuart at the festival. Soloists from here were Jim Hytrek, Jim Hamik, Willis Berry, Fred Coats and Esther Gans.

This was the third annual music festival and was attended by 360 students from high schools in the north central Nebraska conference. The day was spent in sectional rehearsals and the evening concert featured the massed mixed chorus, girls' chorus, boys' chorus, and representative numbers from the schools.
