Johring-Fleener Nuptials Read

The sanctuary of the Church of Christ in O'Neill was the scene of a simple, impressive wedding ceremony Sunday, April 8, at noon when Mrs. Martha L. Johring, of O'Neill, became the bride of Clarence Fleener, of Madison, in the presence of 120 guests.

A. C. Utteback, of Clearwater, who serves as minister of the O'Neill congregation, performed the double-ring ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Shirley Johring, younger daughter of the bride, who is a student of Minnesota Bible college, Minneapolis, Minn., sang "At Dawning," by Cadman. Immediately following the exchange of vows she sang "Together With Jesus," by Fromm. Mrs. Howard Manson, of O'Neill, accompanied Miss Johring and also played a medley of hymns and traditional wedding marches.

The bride was charmingly attired in a navy two-piece crepe suit accented with bluish pink nylon lace on the pink frilly vestee and the three-quarter length sleeves. She wore a navy straw hat and carried pink gloves and a pink linen handkerchief. She also carried a white New Testament, which was a gift of the bridegroom. Her shoulder corsage was of white carnations and mauve sweet peas.

The bridegroom wore a navy blue business suit. The bridegroom and ushers, Howard Manson and Norris George, both of O'Neill, wore white carnation boutonnières. Mrs. Bennie Johring, daughter-in-law of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

The wedding dinner and reception were held at the bride's farm home northeast of O'Neill in the Meek neighborhood. Mrs. Donald Johring, daughter-in-law of the bride, was in charge of the dinner and was assisted by members and friends of the family. Nearly 70 guests enjoyed the two-course dinner.

In the center of the serving table was the 3-tier wedding cake which was baked by Mrs. Melvin Johring, daughter-in-law of the bride, who decorated it with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home at Madison.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included:
