

8 Visiting Churches Represented at Page

PAGE—The 4th anniversary of the Wesleyan Methodist church at Page was observed Saturday, April 8. This was combined with the Elkhorn valley prayer conference. A very large crowd attended. There were groups from Ewing, Neligh, Venus, Lynch, Spencer, O'Neill, Atkinson and Amelia.

One of the former pastors, Rev. R. L. Gowan, field representative of the Brainard Indian Training school, Hot Springs, S. D., brought the morning message. He was on his way to the NAE convention at Chicago, Ill., to represent the Indian school.

Rev. F. Hand, of Riverside Free Methodist church at Ewing, brought the afternoon message. A large crowd also attended the basket dinner at the parsonage at noon.

Rev. and Mrs. George Francis are planning to attend the temperance convention at Lincoln this week.
