Off-Campus Class Meets Saturday

Education 310c, "Introduction to Education," will meet in O'Neill for the second class Saturday, April 21, at 9:30 a.m. This is an off-campus class from the University of Nebraska, taught by Doctor Thorpe.

Anyone who wishes to may enroll at this meeting, according to Alice L. French, Holt county superintendent of public instruction.

"There is no assurance now that a teacher will be allowed to teach a rural school next year with a temporary certificate," Miss French says.

School boards are to use every effort to find a teacher with a regular certificate. When it is possible to secure a teacher with a regular certificate, the board of education and the county superintendent shall refuse to sign an application for a temporary certificate. No temporary certificate will be issued before August 25.

The eighth grade examinations will be held according to the following schedule:

Monday, May 7 — Chambers, Amelia, O'Neill; Tuesday, May 8 — Stuart, Atkinson, Page; Wednesday, May 9 — O'Neill public eighth graders, Meek and Ewing.

Eagles Bury Neligh in Dual Meet

The O'Neill high school Eagles track and field team outclassed the Neligh Warriors, 91-30, Monday at Neligh.

Coach Marv Miller's crew won every event except the low hurdles and the frosh relay.

Among the good marks were Don Kloppenborg's 45-foot heave of the shotput; Don Godel's 10-foot pole vault, and Ted Lindberg's 5-foot 7-inch high jump.

Lindberg had the event clinched and quit at that level.

The Eagles will compete in the annual Holt county meet to be held today (Thursday) at Atkinson.

St. Joseph's hall, of Atkinson, will defend the title. O'Neill has easily outclassed St. Joe and Atkinson in other meets this year.

Mrs. John Harbottle and Mrs. Mabel Henry were in Norfolk Tuesday.
