

Corsage Presented to Music Teacher

EWING — Seventy-three students of music in the Ewing public school attended the music festival held in O'Neill on April 11, 12 and 13.

Represented was the Ewing school band, the mixed chorus, the boys' quartet, glee club, triple trio and the following students' solo numbers: Marion Harris, Donald Ernesti, Joellyn Eacher, Marcia Gibson and Mary Alys Dierks.

A piano duet was played by Joan Binkerd and Joellyn Each-er.

No ratings were given but judges were present for criticism which Miss Esther Schram, the director, reports as being "satisfactory." The band showed "much improvement" from last year and the triple trio also was commended.

Miss Schram was surprised when her students presented her a corsage for the festival.

The music concert given at the high school auditorium on Tuesday evening, April 10, under the direction of Miss Schram, was attended by a very appreciative audience. The numbers on the program were a preconcert of the program to be presented at the festival at O'Neill.
