

Church Notices

METHODIST (O'Neill)
 Rev. V. R. Bell, pastor
 Church school, 10 a.m., classes for all ages.
 Worship, 11 a.m., special music by the choir.
 MYF group, 7:30 p.m.
 We will have a guest speaker in our pulpit next Sunday morning.

Rev. Joseph W. Bell, of Nashville, Tenn., will be our guest speaker Sunday morning, April 29.
 The beautiful electric memorial cross which was presented to the church was dedicated last Sunday.

Last Sunday afternoon the MYF group were hosts to the International club of Wesleyan university. They gave a very interesting program after which the entire group had a social time and lunch together in the church parlors.
 The Young Adult Fellowship met Tuesday evening in the church parlors. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kurtz and Mr. and Mrs. DeWayne Landis were the hosts.
 The choir will practice Thursday evening at 7 o'clock.
 The extended session of the Sunday-school will be held immediately after school on Thursday at the church.
 The Dorcas Circle will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ray Eby.
 The MYF sub-district rally will be held next Sunday afternoon and evening at Ewing. There will be a sack supper.
 We invite you to worship with us.

ST. PETER'S EPISCOPAL (Neligh)
 Rev. Wm. H. Cowger, pastor
 Fourth Sunday after Easter, April 22: prayer, 9 a.m., sermon topic: "The Source of Good."
 Church school, 10 a.m.
 Remember the fine opportunity you have on May 3 to hear Richard Ellsasser, the world's finest young organist, at the Methodist church at Neligh which is sponsored by the churches of Neligh. Mark that date on your calendar and make it one of your "must see" performances. You may not have the opportunity again to hear this wonderful artist.
 Annual council of the diocese of Nebraska will meet at St. James church, Fremont, on May 9 and 10. The speaker will be Very Rev. Paul Roberts, dean of St. John's cathedral, Denver, Colo.

COMMUNITY (Stuart)
 Rev. Orin Graff, pastor
 Unified services every Sunday, 10 a.m.
 Sermon for Sunday, April 22: "Living Sacrifices." Romans 12.
 On Sunday, April 15, services were in charge of Miss Margaret Hamill, of the evangelistic team. Rev. Orin Graff preached at his home church in Bancroft, which celebrated its 65th anniversary.
 Evangelistic services are being held by Misses Margaret Hamill and Eloise Rusted every night this week except Saturday.
 Tonight (Thursday) at 6:30 is family night. Bring your basket supper and table service and we will share our mealtime together before the evening service.
 Rev. Ralph Chamberlain, missionary, will be present to show pictures of his work.

$20,000 FIRE
 One Tilden fireman, Ernie Schmidt, was overcome while helping fight a $20,000 blaze at the Cram implement store in Tilden early Tuesday. Loss was partially covered by insurance.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD (O'Neill)
 Rev. Wayne Hall, pastor
 Revival services are now on nightly at 8 o'clock except Saturday. We have been enjoying the ministry of Evangelist and Mrs. Swick, of Newport. The public is invited to hear the gospel preached that can save O'Neill and America—the only hope for us all.
 We praise the Lord for the record-breaking number in Sunday-school last Sunday. Let's keep growing.
 April 22: Sunday - school, 11 a.m. Don't miss the surprise in the opening 15 minutes. Worship service, 11 a.m., message by the evangelist; young people's meeting, 7:30 p.m.; evangelistic rally, 8 p.m.
 April 25 is ladies' WMC in church basement for prayer and work day. Join the ladies in this important ministry.

No Queen At Inman High This Year

INMAN—The Inman high school junior class entertained the seniors at a banquet Saturday, April 14. Twenty-six guests were present, including the seniors, faculty members and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lubben and Miss Elsie Krueger.
 The theme was a tulip garden. The tables were placed in a T-shape with an old Dutch windmill in one corner, a wishing well in another, and a bird bath in another. The ceiling was lined with blue streamers and the walls were of yellow crepe paper. A three-foot "stone" wall encircled the room.
 The program:
 "To All, Greeting" by Ila June Coon; "We Thank You" by Graydon Hartigan; "O-Id Times" by Laurence Stevens.
 "Life's Goal," by Supt. R. L. Gray; "In the Future," by Richard Bohn; "P-people Are Funny," by Larry Sawyer; "Signed the Seniors," by Leo Sobotka.
 Harlan Nielsen, junior president, served as toastmaster.
 A 3-course dinner was served by the mothers of the juniors.
 Murna Scholz, Ronnie Covenvid, dressed as Dutch girls and try, Evelyn Davis and Larry Deboys, served the food.
 After the banquet the crowning of the king of Inman high school took place. Since there are no girls in the senior class, there was no queen this year. Harlan Nielsen escorted the king. His majesty was preceded by an honor guard of four juniors. The king, Roland Cadwallader, was recognized by Harold Nielsen. The waiters then entertained the king with "Tiptoe Through the Tulips," "An Old Dutch Garden," and a Dutch dance. The king led the dance following this entertainment. The entire high school was invited to the dance.

Riverside Club Meets At Howard Home—
 The Riverside 4-H club held their regular business meeting Sunday, April 15, at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Howard.
 Roll call was answered with a favorite flower. Five members were absent. The boys judged seed corn. Happy birthday was sung to four members whose birthdays were in April. At the close of the meeting the members sang "Little White Duck" an "Mocking Bird Hill." Recreation was "Pick Your Life-Saver," and a three-legged relay race.
 Later Cal Stewart and John McCarville, of The Frontier, took pictures of the members carrying their skates that they purchased with club money.
 Lunch was served.
 The next meeting will be at the Orville Ross home May 13. Club rosary will be at the Ed Boyle home Tuesday, May 1.—By Mary Frances Vitt, news reporter.
