Double Wedding Sunday in O'Neill Methodist Church

Rev. V. R. Bell officiated at the double-wedding which took place at the Methodist church at 2:30 Sunday afternoon, May 20.

Miss Mildred Seger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seger, of Atkinson, became the bride of Erwin Van Buren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Van Buren, of O'Neill.

Miss Marlene Geary, daughter of George Haddon Geary and the late Mrs. Geary, of Inman, became the bride of Hubert Kiser, of O'Neill, son of the late Joseph A. Kiser and Mrs. W. D. Smith, of Yates Center, Kans.

Miss Imogene Davis sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer." Her accompanist was Mary Hartigan, of Inman. Both brides were given in marriage by their fathers.

Miss Seger's gown was of white satin. The skirt gathered at the waist and the bertha collar was filled with net and trimmed with lace. The long sleeves pointed over her wrists. A tiara of seed pearls held the fingertip veil of lace trimmed net. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls. She carried a white Bible and a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Robert Jonas, sister of the bridegroom, was matron-of-honor. Her gown was of orchid taffeta and was similar to that of the bride. Her headpiece was fashioned of pink and white carnations and she carried, as did all the attendants, a colonial bouquet of pastel sweet peas. All attendants also had white nylon gloves.

Miss Marlene Geary wore a gown of white rayon taffeta, princess style, with a bertha collar filled with net. The long sleeves came to points at the wrists. Her fingertip veil was of rosebuds. Her bouquet was of pink and white carnations and held in place with tiny white she carried her mother's class ring and a white handkerchief that had belonged to her grandmother.

Her attendants were George Geary, of Conrad, Mont.; sister of the bride, and Miss Wilma Van Buren. Mrs. Geary's gown was of pink rayon crepe; Miss Van Buren's, of yellow taffeta.

Robert Jonas served as best man for Mr. Van Buren; Bill Burkhardt, for Mr. Kiser. Ushers were George Geary and Jim Seger, brothers of the brides.

The mothers of the brides wore black dresses with black accessories and corsages of red and white carnations.

A reception was held at the Legion hall immediately after the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Buren will live in O'Neill. Mr. and Mrs. Kiser will reside at the Geary farm 5 miles south of Inman.

Dorothy Burival, John Matthews Wed

In an 8 o'clock ceremony Thursday morning, May 17, at St. Patrick's Catholic church, Miss Dorothy Burival, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burival, became the bride of John Matthews, son of Leo P. Matthews.

Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan officiated at the nuptial mass.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Leo Burival, wore a travelling suit of robin's egg blue with white accessories. Her bouquet was of pink feather carnations and lilies-of-the-valley and she carried a white prayer book.

Miss Madge Matthews, of Lincoln, was maid-of-honor. She wore a pink suit with white accessories.

Pvt. Leo Francis Matthews, of Ft. Eustis, Va., was best man.

A wedding breakfast was served to the families at the M&M cafe immediately following the ceremony.

After a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Matthews will reside on a farm north of O'Neill.

Mrs. Ted Strong Is Hostess

The Chit and Chatter extension club met last week at the home of Mrs. Ted Strong. Two lessons were given, "One-Dish Meals," by leader A. of the Elkhorn club, Mrs. Bob Cook, and "Children's Clothing," by Mrs. Gene Sanders.

Helen June Stewart a May Bride, Page

PAGE — A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at 4:15 Sunday afternoon in the Methodist parsonage here when Miss Helen June Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stewart, became the bride of Leo Neubauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neubauer.

The marriage lines for the double-ring ceremony were read by Rev. C. E. Wilcox before an improvised altar of spring flowers banked around a picture of Christ.

The bride appeared in a gown of white frosted organdy styled in a ballerina length with matching accessories. Her corsage was of pastel spring flowers. Her bridesmaids, Misses Sherry Stewart and Janice Landreth, wore similar gowns of blue and white respectively. Their corsages were also similar to the bride's.

The bridegroom's attendants were the brothers of the bride, James and Richard Stewart.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple departed on a wedding trip to Denver, Colo.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stewart, farmers northwest of Page. She was a member of this year's graduating class at Page high school.

The bridegroom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. William Neubauer, also of Page. He was graduated from Page high school last year and has been associated with his father at farming during the past year.

Upon their return from Denver they will make their home on the farm from which his parents are retiring to town.

Ewing Boys Meet In Tokyo

EWING—It was a happy meeting, May 9, when 2 Ewing boys, Pat Sanders and David Cloyd met aboard ship in a port at Tokyo, Japan.

Both are serving in the navy. Sanders is aboard the USS Philippine Sea, a carrier, and Cloyd is on a landing craft. The boys took their boot training together and this is their first meeting since being separated.

It was through letters from home that each boy learned the whereabouts of the other.

Pat stated in a letter received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sanders, that there is a possibility that he might get leave and would be sailing for the States the 29th. Pat has been in Korean waters since October 13. David was home on furlough before sailing for Japan.
